Curley Returns to Mayoral Chair—Mayor Curley, after being welcomed on his return to City Hall today, goes into a huddle with John B. Hynes, the city clerk who took over the mayoral duties five months ago. Curley greeted Hynes with, "Hello, Johnny, how are you?" as he entered the mayoral office.

Curley Resumes Post Amid Cheers

Mayor Curley returned to City Hall today to be faced by a tumultuous welcome by a throng outside the building and a more restrained but sincere greeting from city employees and department heads massed in his office. Looking rested and refreshed after spending a quiet Thanksgiving holiday with his family, the Mayor arrived at City Hall at 9:50 a. m., accompanied by his wife, his daughter, Mary, and his son, George.

After the welcoming, both outside and inside the building, the mayor settled down to a busy day of conferences with department heads on matters "affecting the finances of the city," according to a statement he made late in the day.

He said he had ordered the traffic commission to submit its recommendation to the council for installation of 5000 parking meters, to be paid for from receipts.

Purchase of voting machines, he said, would be deferred this year since it was more important to devote money to hospital services and food for the needy.

The mayor said he had ordered the Housing Authority to proceed at once with the Cathedral housing project in the South End, of which 60 per cent of the cost will be borne by the federal government.

On ash and garbage contracts, he said, awards would be made to lowest bidders. He said he expected installation of incinerators would solve much of this problem within a year. He also had ordered Public Works Comm. Robert P. Curley to locate new dumping sites and acquire them for the city. Present sites are owned by contractors, he said.

CHEERED BY CROWD

The mayor was greeted prolonged cheering by a crowd filling the broad sidewalk outside City Hall as he arrived for the first time in five buildings and other vantage points.

The mayor smiled, doffed his hat and shook hands with a number of persons as he passed through the crowd, preceded by his wife and daughter.

Inside the building, corridors were thronged with city employees who greeted him warmly as he strode to a waiting elevator.

GREETED BY HYNES

City department heads and other officials were lined up inside his office reception room and the mayor shook hands with each as he greeted them.

Temporary Mayor John B. Hynes was waiting in the inner office and Curley strode toward him with hand extended, saying:

"Hello, Johnny, how are you?"

"Welcome home, Mr. Mayor,"

Hynes replied with a smile.

The mayor took off his coat and walked to his desk, looked at his chair and felt it.

"This should be higher," he remarked, then turned it a few times and felt it again.

"That's better," he said and sat down.

Former City Clerk Wilfred J. Doyle, a life-long friend of Curley, approached his desk and handed him a typewritten sheet of paper and said:

"Governor, this is your first official act."

The letter, dated Nov. 28 and addressed to the Honorable City Council and the City Clerk of Boston, read:

"Gentlemen: You are hereby notified that on Friday, Nov. 28, at 9:55 a. m. I have returned to active duties at City Hall, thereby terminating the period specified in Ch. 580, Acts of 1947; and beginning with said date I have resumed the office of mayor for the remainder of the term for which I was elected."

Curley signed the letter as Doyle remarked to newspapermen that it was the only way to "officially prove and certify that he is mayor again."

Sole floral display in the office was a vase, containing a dozen long-stemmed red roses, the mayor's favorite flower, which had been sent by a Boston florist and long-time friend.

POSES FOR PHOTOGRAPHERS

The mayor, smiling and cheerful and looking like his old self, posed for numerous photographs, alone and with Temporary Mayor Hynes. He also displayed a sheaf of telegrams from all parts of the country, including congratulatory messages from Chicago, San Francisco and other western cities.

Then he smilingly suggested to photographers that they take his picture with members of his family. The group posed with the mayor in the center, flanked by his wife and daughter.

"A man should always be surrounded by beautiful examples of feminine loveliness," he murmured.

Then he winked at photographers and whispered:

"A rose between two thorns."

His wife turned impulsively and kissed his cheek and Curley gallantly saluted her on the lips.

Photographers demanded an encore, protesting that only one of their number had managed to catch the impromptu and unposed shot, but the Curleys refused smilingly.

Curley said he would settle

Noxon Plea Opposed By Barnes

Opposition of Atty. Gen. Clarence A. Barnes to a petition for a full pardon for John F. Noxon, Pittsfield attorney now serving a life term for the electrocution murder of his defective infant son, will be made public within 24 hours, it was learned today.

The proposed pardon already has been opposed by Berkshire County Dist. Atty. Charles R. Alberti, who was appointed as a district court judge Wednesday by Gov. Bradford.

The State Parole Board likewise recorded its opposition with Chairman Matthew Bullock and Frederick Bradlee outvoting Harold E. Lundgren of Worcester. State Corrections Comm. J. Paul Doyle reported his approval of the pardon petition.

From an attorney remotely connected with Noxon's defense, it was learned today that Atty. Gen. Barnes had read the entire minutes of the case personally in preparing his report. In addition, Barnes had requested the prosecution to furnish him with statements on two angles of the case, which were in its possession. He also had carefully checked the Supreme Court decision upholding Noxon's conviction, it was said.

On this basis, it was said, Barnes would record his disapproval of the petition for a pardon. Noxon originally was sentenced to death in the electric chair after his conviction on a charge of first degree murder. His death sentence was commuted to life imprisonment last year by former Gov. Tobin.

Truman to Scan Disability Pensions

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28 (AP)

—Presidential Press Sec. Ross said today that President Truman asked the armed services for a list of all officers receiving tax-free disability retirement pay for his information.

Ross told reporters he did not know what might come of the matter eventually.

The President asked Defense Sec. Forrestal to submit the list as a result of the Senate investigation of Maj. Gen. Bennett E. Meyers.

Call More Troops In French Strikes

PARIS, Nov. 28 (AP)—France called an additional 80,000 conscript troops to the colors today to help meet the emergency caused by an epidemic of strikes which slowly are strangling French economic life.

The cabinet's decision, reached in a session of more than four hours, brought to 15 divisions the total of military forces called up within a week to deal with the threat of civil strife arising from Communist-supported strikes involving 2,000,000 men.

The decision followed an announcement that 66 police commissioners, each of them in charge of a district, were fired by the government. There was no official explanation. The Communist newspaper, L'Humanite, called it a purge.

Premier Robert Schuman's new cabinet, which met under the chairmanship of Socialist President Vincent Auriol, announced that the second half of the 1946 class of conscripts was being called into uniform. Half the class of 1947 was called up last week. The Ministry of War refused to confirm a report that French troops on duty in occupied Germany were being brought back to Paris to reinforce local forces.

Schuman is known to be afraid of letting the Communists gain control of the French police.

Army Takes Over Milan in Red Revolt

ROME, Nov. 28 (INS)—Italian military authorities took over control of Milan late today after a prolonged period of Communist demonstrations.

An organized band of 5000 so-called partisans had seized the prefecture of police in Italy's great northern industrial city. The outright insurrection was based upon an ostensible protest against transfer of Prefect Emilio Troilo to a United Nations post. Communist agitators in Milan regarded this action as dismissal of Troilo from the cabinet of Premier Alcide de Gasperi.

Adding to unrest was the action of the government in devaluing the lira from 350 to 589 to the dollar.

The Milan revolt had been threatened on Wednesday, when Partisan leaders said they would not tolerate the transfer.

In a demonstration of perfect organization and co-ordination, Communist workers went to their factories in Milan but did nothing. At 9:30 a. m. the Communist chiefs decreed the general walk-out and the 5000 Partisans went into action.

They set up roadblocks and took over control of traffic and all communications.

Reformatory Death Of Girl Under Probe

The mysterious death at Framingham Reformatory nearly three weeks ago of pretty Antonette DiBenedetto, 21, Cottage st., East Boston, followed by a hurried embalming of her body without notice to her family as to cause of death, was disclosed today when her bewildered parents demanded to be told how she died and why the information had been withheld from them.

Her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Enrico DiBenedetto, received nothing but a telegram announcing their daughter's "sudden death," and have yet to be given any elaboration of the tersely worded telegram, they said.

From other quarters it was learned the death certificate, which the parents have not seen, briefly cited the cause of death as "asphyxiation by suspension-suicidal."

Nov. 1, nine days before her death, Antonette had written her father and mother a happy letter, asking for new clothes, telling of plans for the future. In a letter shortly after that, she had expressed happiness after a visit from her father Nov. 6, only four days before she died.

TOLD TO CALL FOR BODY

Immediately upon receipt of the death telegram the father communicated with an East Boston undertaker, who telephoned authorities at the women's reformatory. He was told he could call for the girl's body the following day.

But the next day the body was not in the reformatory morgue. Officials there told him the body had been given to a local undertaker.

The East Boston man said the Framingham undertaker presented him with a bill of $50 "for removal and embalming" and turned the body over to him on the condition he would remit a check the following day. The Framingham undertaker did not give him a death certificate then but one was mailed in time for the funeral in Mt. Carmel Church, East Boston.

The night before the funeral a reformatory official arrived to view the body, told the undertaker the bill for embalming should not have been given to the latter, then pocketed it.

The undertaker said he had been reluctant to claim the body as it had been embalmed without permission from next of kin.

Embalming, according to undertakers, has the effect of concealing the nature of some injuries in connection with death, notably sexual violation.

It was revealed by the East Boston undertaker that the body of Antonette DiBenedetto bore bruises on one knee and ankle, as well as a black eye, disfigurements not usually associated with suicide.

EMBALMING BILL MAILED

He said, also, that a few days after the funeral he received a letter enclosing the embalming bill, which was marked "Paid" on the back. The letter contained the advice: "This bill was not for you."

Antonette, a graduate of East Boston High School, had written her parents shortly before her death:

"I missed the movies tonight to write to you, but I feel I have conquered the world. I now realize I must have caused you heartaches, but when I leave here you will find I am a very different daughter. I like the outdoor work, and it has done a lot for me."

She had been committed to "the Women's Reformatory as a stubborn child." After her release she had become involved in a quarrel with her two sisters and so, according to her mother, felt she had broken her parole. Therefore she returned to the reformatory voluntarily, the mother stated.

A strong girl, she worked at the Hingham shipyard during the war and had difficulty in adapting herself to clerical work or comparable jobs afterward, her father said.

Paula Welden Missing Year

Monday will mark the first anniversary of the mysterious disappearance of Paula Welden, 18, Bennington, Vt., leaving no clue by which she could be traced.

Many believe the girl died on Glastonbury Mountain near the college, while others are of the opinion she voluntarily dropped out of sight.

Thousands of dollars have been spent in a search that extended through New England and other states east of the Mississippi river.

Radcliffe Student Found Dead In Wayland Called Suicide

State Police pathologists, who performed an autopsy today on Frances Flint, 22, St. John's rd., Cambridge, Vassar graduate and post-graduate Radcliffe student, whose head gun-wound in Wayland Woods, said "a pool of blood at the spot where the 22 caliber rifle was found indicates she shot herself at that spot."

Authorities also revealed they had traced the rifle to a Cambridge department store, where an employee remembered selling it to th girl, daughter of Mrs. Dorothea C. P. Flint, house mother at Eliot Hall, Radcliffe.

"The course of the bullet," reported Drs. Russell Fisher and Joseph Spellman, "would allow the girl to crawl or walk to the place where the body was found," 35 feet from the rifle.

SCATTERED CLOTHING

One circumstance of the young student's death was parallel with the mysterious end of Miss Maris Lysle, 31, Pittsfield school teacher, found dead under a poplar tree in Effingham, N. H., almost two weeks ago and listed as a "probable suicide." Both the student and the teacher had stripped themselves before facing death.

Miss Flint's clothing was scattered around her in a 50-foot radius. No trace of Miss Lysle's clothing has yet been found. Authorities theorized the latter had either hidden or burned her garments before she apparently hanged herself from the tree and fell to the ground.

Of Miss Flint, her room-mate, Miss Marguerite Silva, Puerto Rico, said:

"She was in a terribly nervous condition. She had fallen back in her studies because of fear of not passing."

TELLS OF DESPAIR

"Several times she said to other girls in the dormitory that she wished the world would come to an end. She had to drop some of her subjects to ease the strain."

Northeastern U. S. Cold Due to Linger

By the Associated Press

Cold weather lingered over the northeastern quarter of the country today and federal forecasters said there was no immediate relief in sight.

In other sections of the country, temperatures were moderate and sunny skies were predicted for most of the South and West. The mercury climbed into the 50s in Kentucky yesterday.

New seasonal lows were reported in Minnesota, with Duluth's two below. Minneapolis and St. Cloud shivered in zero temperatures. Chicago's 12 above was a new low for the season.

4 Reds Set to Balk Compromise on Austrian Assets

LONDON, Nov. 28 (AP)—France proposed today that Russia receive $100,000,000 from current production in Austria as part of the general reparations settlement, a qualified source said.

Soviets Stand Pat on Jap Treaty Terms

MOSCOW, Nov. 28 (AP)—The Soviet Union stood firm today on its oft-repeated position that groundwork for the Japanese peace treaty must be laid by the Council of Foreign Ministers, where the veto may be exercised.

The Russian Foreign Ministry, Tass reported, rejected a Chinese suggestion that the treaty be considered by the Far Eastern Commission, with a unanimous vote of the Big Four—in this case, Britain, China, Russia and the United States—required for any decision.

The Russians expressed agreement with the Chinese concept of unanimity of the Big Four (the right to exercise the veto) but said the Japanese peace settlement should be undertaken first by the foreign ministers of Britain, China, Russia and the United States, and proposed that they meet in China next January for that purpose.

Polish Ex-Slave Here to Be Bride

Attractive, blonde Maria Dunyk, 20, Polish slave laborer of the Nazis who was liberated by American troops, arrived at Logan Airport from Germany today to become the bride of Charles Kahan, 21, of School st., Watertown. The couple met when Kahan, now a draughtsman, was serving as a corporal in the Air Force and she was employed in the officers' mess of an American airfield after her liberation.

The couple had not seen each other for two years, but had corresponded frequently.

UNESCO PICKS BEIRUT

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 28 (INS)—Delegates to the UN Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization voted to hold their 1948 general assembly in Beirut, Lebanon.

The proposal was made to deputies of the Big Four foreign ministers who were seeking agreement on a treaty of independence and peace for Austria. The ministers themselves were considering the future of Germany and its boundaries.

The informant said the French suggested that Russia receive a third of the production of the Zisterdorf oil fields indefinitely and take over virtually all Austrian shipping on the Danube.

The French proposals were said to have been made in a new attempt to break the deadlock among Russia, the United States, Great Britain and France on what constitute German assets in Russia and what might be used for reparations. A Russian source said this proposal would be rejected by Moscow.

The French proposal appeared to be based on the reparations agreement reached between Russia and Finland, by which Finland in effect agreed to "buy" all German assets in her territory for $300,000,000. Thus, Soviet ownership of former German property in Finland was avoided.

Dr. Karl Gruber, Austrian foreign minister, said in London this week his government was willing to accept the French formula. American and British officials were inclined also to favor it, mainly because it presented the most promising way open to writing a treaty.

Girl, Given Mercy Once, Sent to Jail

Helen Burris, 25, Savin Hill ave., Dorchester, was found guilty in municipal court today of receiving a stolen $500 mouton fur coat.

The coat, property of Evelyn Draper, Warren ave., South End, who as Evelyn Phillips figured in an assault case that sent a Medford man to prison two weeks ago, was stolen in a downtown bar, and recovered in the Burris woman's home by Officer John F. Toomey.

Miss Burris was saved from a prison term last Christmas Eve when she was given a suspended three-month sentence and probation on conviction of shoplifting. That suspension was revoked today. In addition, Judge Riley imposed a six-month suspended sentence and probation for two years.

18 Homeless After Roxbury Fire, Blast

Eighteen Roxbury residents, including a dozen children, were homeless today after flames roared through a three-story block in Robey st., causing damage estimated at $1500. Breaking out on the second floor after explosion of an oil stove, the fire roared up through the roof.

The family of Mr. and Mrs. James O'Neill and their six sons, trapped on the top floor were forced to flee over an improvised bridge to an adjoining porch. The boys in their escape carried the family dog, Candy, and a cat, Mickey, with them to safety.

Not so fortunate was the cat, Sandy, of Mr. and Mrs. John Noonan and their children, Linda, 2, Carroll, 6, Grace, 11, and Marie, 16. The explosion in the living room of their apartment trapped and burned the cat. Mrs. Noonan carried Linda to safety in her arms and Mr. Noonan led the older children out.

Andrew J. Fitzgerald carried his 4-year-old daughter, Jacqueline, from their first floor home while Mrs. Fitzgerald bundled up their daughter, Mary, 3 months, and carried her out.

The O'Neills, including Arthur, 16, Donald, 14, Raymond, 11, John, 7, Paul, 5 and Joseph, 3 and the pets, were taken in by their next door neighbor, a widower with 10 children, who prepared a little extra dinner to give them as happy a Thanksgiving as possible while other neighbors sheltered the other two families.

Grandfather Hammers Boy To Death

CLEVELAND, Nov. 28 (AP) Eleven-year-old Donald J. Hurley today was found hammered to death in his bed at his grandparents' home, where he had spent Thanksgiving, and Police Lt. Peter Allen quoted the grandfather as saying he killed the boy.

"I don't know why I did it. I loved the boy," Allen said the grandfather, Joseph Hurley, 62, told him.

Arrested at a West Side dairy where he was employed as a salesman-collector, Hurley was taken to Central police station. The boy was found by his grandmother, Mrs. Estella Hurley. Lt. Allen said Hurley told him he arose early this morning, poured himself a glass of milk and went after a hammer to repair a faucet on the second floor, where the boy was sleeping in a rear bedroom.

The officer said Hurley recounted:

"I was going to fix the hot water faucet. I walked by his bedroom. I walked in and hit him four or five times. I don't know why I did it. I loved the boy. I went down and hid the hammer under the sofa."

Missing Dragger Believed Sighted

Possible clue to the disappearance of the New Bedford fishing dragger Margie and Pat and its crew of nine, last heard from on Nov. 12, was seen today in the report of a derelict sighted on the south easterly edge of Georges Bank, 70 miles off Highland Light, Cape Cod.

The American Liberty freighter, Bret Harte, bound for Philadelphia from an undisclosed overseas port, radioed Coast Guard headquarters in Boston that it had sighted what appeared to be the capsize hulk of a boat about 65 feet in length, 12 feet wide and standing about five feet out of the water, but with no name visible.

Coast Guard officials said that some attempt would be made to identify the wreckage since it answered the general description of the missing dragger.

The 85-foot fishing vessel, owned by the Standard Fish Co. of Boston and New Bedford, was last seen 75 miles east of Chatham by a sister vessel the day before a severe storm with hurricane force swept the area. Attempts later to reach the Margie and Pat by its radio-telephone failed and air-sea rescue squadrons searched thousands of square miles of ocean as far south as New York in fruitless hunt for the vessel.

Newton Film Mogul Ignored On Honeymoon, Judge Told

On their transcontinental honeymoon last year, Herman L. Rifkin, 63, wealthy movie magnate, of Clements rd., Newton, was "ignored" by his 38-year-old blonde bride, Annette, Att. George R. Farnum declared in Suffolk Probate Court.

During the same honeymoon, Farnum continued, she kept her husband and a sightseeing bus waiting at Colorado Springs while she walked with an Army officer to whom she had become attracted.

Farnum was arguing before Judge John W. Mahoney against a motion by Mrs. Rifkin's attorney, Michael T. Prendergast for transcontinental traveling expenses to check on Rifkin's accusations of cruel and abusive treatment in his divorce suit against his wife.

Mrs. Rifkin, who now lives in Brooklyn, N. Y., has a counter-petition seeking to have the court declare that she is living apart from her husband for justifiable cause.

In his motion Prendergast asked expenses of $3150. These included $1500 for hotels, food, taxis, tips and telephone calls; $400 for railroad fares; $300 for assistants; $4000 for stenographers and transcripts; $400 for commissioners for depositions and $150 for witness and service fees.

At the conclusion of the hearing, Judge Mahoney took the petition under advisement and later announced he would allow Prendergast $1000.

Nationwide Hunt For Daughter of Walter Winchell

A nationwide hunt was on today for red-haired Walda Winchell, 20, actress-daughter of New York columnist Walter Winchell, after she vanished mysteriously from her New York hotel home.

WALDA WINCHELL, 20
Columnist's Daughter Missing

In Cambridge, her estranged husband said he could shed no light on her disappearance and in Hollywood, her father disclosed that Walda was "a very sick girl" who needed hospitalization.

William F. Lawless of Elm st., Cambridge, the youth with whom she eloped June 5, 1945, received the news with anxiety for her welfare. He said:

"Walda is a swell kid. I am sure we could have made a go of our marriage if it had been given a fair trial. I hope she is all right. I didn't know about her disappearance until last night. She hasn't contacted me and neither have her parents."

"In fact," said the young war veteran, "Walda hasn't communicated with me since I saw her in Middlesex probate court last Dec. 9."

"This certainly is a pretty poor Thanksgiving for me," was the comment of Columnist Winchell on the West Coast. "I know she is a pretty sick girl and doctors say she ought to be in the hospital."

He did not disclose the nature of her illness.

Walda was reported missing to New York police by her mother, Mrs. June Winchell, who said her daughter vanished from her residence at the Gotham Hotel.

MARRIAGE A SENSATION

A successful actress in a half-dozen Broadway plays, the missing girl most recently had appeared in "Up in Central Park," "Dark of the Moon" and "Devils Galore." Her stage name was Toni Eden.

Her marriage created a sensation. One week after her marriage to Lawless, a military equipment inspector for the Research Construction Co., of Cambridge, Walda telephoned to her father in Hollywood and reported the marriage was a mistake. She asked Winchell to aid her in annulling the marital tie.

Shortly afterward Lawless sued for divorce, charging cruelty and asking for alimony for his suffering. Walda then filed a cross-petition for divorce.

Lawless' suit was dismissed in Middlesex probate court on Dec. 10, 1946, and immediately Walda withdrew hers.

French Bride Stowaway Must Quit U. S.

PORTLAND, Me., Nov. 28 (AP) A pretty French bride who hid aboard an oil tanker to follow her husband to this country was ordered excluded from the United States as a stowaway by an immigration service board of special inquiry today.

The girl, Maria Louise (Darcancier) Hicks, 23, who lost 15 pounds while hiding in an 18-inch rope locker aboard the tanker Chocotaw Trail, immediately appealed to the U. S. Attorney General.

She is the wife of Lavern A. Hicks, 22, of Oakes, N. D., an oiler on the Chocotaw Trail.

James W. Randall, chairman of the special board, said Mrs. Hicks was ordered excluded on three charges—"for arriving as a stowaway, for arriving without a valid immigration visa issued by the American consul in France, and for arriving without a passport issued by the country of her citizenship—France."

Escorted by her young husband, Mrs. Hicks left the hearing room in visibly low spirits.

Randall said Mrs. Hicks probably would be detained in New York pending decision by the Attorney-General.

Girl, 15, Awaiting Hearing Flees Court

A 15-year-old Charlestown girl, arrested in October as a runaway, escaped from juvenile court today while awaiting a hearing on a charge of violating her probation.

Details of the manner of her escape were withheld by court officials, who declined to discuss it. The girl is described as 5 feet tall, 98 pounds, with light brown hair and blue eyes. She was wearing a dark blue coat, dark shirt, brown moccasins and a kerchief.

NEGLECTED CHILDREN REUNITED WITH FATHER—Gloria, Diane and Walter Kitionis are reunited with their father, Walter Kitionis, at a Thanksgiving table in their grandparents' home in that city after being returned to Massachusetts from Birmingham, Ala., where they were found living with their mother in a coal mine hovel. Father and children will make their home in Detroit. Mrs. Kitionis is being held in the Southern city awaiting extradition proceedings. She is wanted in Worcester on several counts.

Cutter, Tug Near Disabled Freighter

The Coast Guard cutter Acushnet and seagoing tug Curb were closing in today on the position 50 miles north of Bermuda where the Boston freighter Fillipp Mazzei was last reported drifting helplessly with a broken rudder post.

A message from the freighter stated that a sea anchor was holding the vessel head to wind, and with average weather no immediate danger was anticipated.

Premier of Canada Nits Soviet Attitude

PORTLAND, Me., Nov. 28 (AP) The attitude of Russia on foreign affairs is creating a "terrible situation" in the world, Premier John B. McNair of New Brunswick, Canada, said today.

He would not elaborate on the comment in an interview here while his Fredericton, N. B., to New York plane was grounded briefly at the municipal airport.

200 Million Bay State Housing Bill Is Filed

In an effort to break the present housing bottleneck in Massachusetts, six Democratic and Republican representatives joined today in filing a $200,000,000 "baby" Taft-Ellender-Wagner housing act for the Commonwealth, calling for construction of 36,000 low-rental dwelling units.

Joining in sponsorship of the bill were Reps. Daniel Rudsten, Dorchester; Louis Lobel, Brighton; and Peter Jordan, Revere. Republicans, and Reps. Michael P. Feeney and James A. Burke, Hyde Park; and Charles Kaplan, Roxbury, Democrats.

In filing the bill with the House clerk, the six predicted the biggest issue in the coming legislative session would be on housing, rent control and nonvocation legislation.

The bill would create a five-member, unpaid Housing Authority, to be appointed by the Governor and council, at least two of whom would be war veterans. The board would select a full-time, paid director.

The board would have authority to raise bond issues up to $200,000,000, hire experts and other personnel and acquire by purchase or eminent domain such property as might be necessary for constructing single, double and multiple low-cost housing units.

It also would be empowered to contract for any part of such construction and award contracts to builders and private corporations. It likewise would be empowered to contract with municipalities or state agencies for any work they might do on such housing projects.

The board also would hire employees to manage such low-cost rental units and maintain the low rents, by state subsidy, if necessary.

The Housing Authority also would be required to prevent any discrimination because of race, color or creed in administering the program. Veterans and non-veterans would be considered for rentals in proportion to their needs.

Body of Youth, 19, Trying to Flee Cops' Guns Found

WORCESTER, Nov. 28 (AP)—The body of Thomas L. Dotson, Jr., 19, Negro Navy war veteran and recent bridegroom, was found in the Manchester st. yards of the New Haven railroad this morning. He was dead from a bullet through the chest. Three policemen reported firing shots into the air while chasing him after he leaped from a stolen car.

Arrested and held in $1200 for superior court on auto law violations, was George Robbins, 18, also a Negro. He told police Dotson was with him when they stole a car which radio police later intercepted.

Peabody Has Paint Plant Blast, $25,000 Fire

An explosion in the paint storage room of the Standard Hardware Co., Main st., Peabody, today touched off a fire that completely destroyed the room and spread to a 100-year-old 24-room doctor's mansion as well as the company's storehouse in Park st.

Estimates of damage ranged between $25,000 and $50,000. A dozen clerks fled to safety. The mansion, owned by Dr. Walter J. Higgins, was unoccupied. Threatened were the Strand Theater and the Unitarian Church.

Mrs. Coffin Faces 2 Held In Dartmouth Gem Robbery

PROVIDENCE, Nov. 28 (AP)—Mrs. Patrice A. Coffin, today at police headquarters faced two gunmen captured here yesterday, in an effort to identify them as participants in the $200,000 jewelry robbery at her Dartmouth, Mass., home Nov. 18.

Confronting one of the men, she said, "he looks like one of them," but she admitted she could not be positive. She said she saw no point of resemblance in the other.

Mrs. Coffin, blonde former actress, was accompanied here from Dartmouth by her husband, Richard, 29, whose head was still bandaged for wounds suffered in fighting the three masked men who bound and gagged the couple.

The two men whom Mrs. Coffin confronted today were captured in a small downtown hotel. Chief Inspector John J. Deary said they were asleep when police moved in, and had no chance to reach three guns, found in a dresser drawer, with two masks.

State Detective John Sullivan of Boston questioned both men at length. Fall River detectives also questioned them concerning recent breaks in that city.

Lt. James S. Hervey of the Dartmouth police accompanied the Coffins here and returned with them to their Dartmouth home this afternoon.

Chief Inspector Deary said no formal charges had been placed against the men, pending further questioning.

FOUR KIDNEYS LEFT—Betty Seipp, 4, holds up five fingers in Women's and Children's Hospital, Chicago, showing how many kidneys she was born with. One has been removed by surgery. Physicians said her case is extremely rare and occurs less than once in 10,000 examined cases. It was explained that she had a double kidney on her right side and triple kidneys on the left side.

Legislative Phone Rate Probe Sought

An investigation of the New England Telephone and Telegraph Co.'s rate was asked today in a resolution filed with the clerk of the House by Reps. Gabriel F. Piemonte, William J. Fitzsimons and John F. Collins, all of Boston, with Harvey A. Pothier of Haverhill and Colin J. Cameron of Amesbury.

The measure calls for a probe by a special commission of three representatives, one senator, two persons appointed by the governor, and the public utilities commission chairman or his designate. Rep. Piemonte pointed out the Rhode Island legislature has blocked a telephone rate increase there, by means of special legislation calling for a rate study. He emphasized the public utilities commission has granted the telephone company an increase after the Legislature here prorogued.

5 Men Caught Operating Still Get Jail Terms

Five Greater Boston men, who pleaded guilty to possession of an unregistered still on the premises of the Woburn Mushroom Co., Woburn, were given prison sentences and fined 100 each today in federal court.

Six months terms were meted out to Severino Pagnini, 54, Main st., Everett, and George S. Finocchi, 54, Gov. Winthrop rd., Somerville. Similar terms given to Pagnini's son, Charles S. Pagnini, 24, Saratoga st., East Boston, and Charles V. Midolo, 24, Glenwood st., North Andover were suspended along with their fines. Albert L. Patry, 38, Boston ave., Medford, already serving a prison term for a similar offense, was given a year and a day to run concurrently with his present sentence.

Seek FBI Aid
To Identify Maine Victim

WISCASSET, Me., Nov. 28.—Baffled, authorities today sought aid of the FBI to establish the identity of a man about 35 whose bullet-ridden body was found by hunters here in dense undergrowth.

The victim had been shot three times in the back.

Fingerprints were taken and forwarded to Washington in the hope that military or naval service or perhaps war work, would bring about identification. In Washington officials disclosed it will take a few days to match the prints.

The only clue to the identity was obtained by piecing together scraps of blue stationery found near the body and giving the name of "Walter Willey, Deblois, Me., c-o Clayton." The envelope bearing this address was postmarked at Kittery.

The sports shirt worn by the victim bore the label "Vanity Fair of Boston." The bullets were apparently fired from a .32 calibre revolver.

The body was removed to Cowley's undertaking parlors here, where an autopsy was performed by Medical Examiner Dr. Philip Gregory of Boothbay Harbor, assisted by Dr. Joseph Porter of Portland and Dr. J. Goodof of Lewiston.

The victim was described as 5 feet 9 inches, 165 pounds, slim, light, receding sandy hair and blue eyes.

He was wearing a maroon jacket, blue trousers and black shoes.

2 Die, 18 Hurt in Bridge
Fall, Awaiting Hirohito

TOKYO, Nov. 28 (AP)—A surging crowd in Tottori, anxious for a glimpse of touring Emperor Hirohito, fell 30 feet when a flimsy wooden overpass at the railway station collapsed. Two died and 26 others were seriously injured.

Tottori is southwest of Osaka, on the north coast of Honshu. The Emperor's current tour of this district will take him to atom-bombed Hiroshima next week.

Standard Cuts Gas Deliveries

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 28

(AP)—Standard Oil Co. announced today it would begin rationing gasoline to its distributors in Alabama Dec. 1. Indications were that the program would be put into effect on virtually a nation-wide basis.

A spokesman for Standard Oil said its 3000 dealers throughout Alabama would be limited to 85 per cent of their purchases during October.

Another large state distributor said "rationing of sales is very definitely in the air but we have nothing official yet from our home office."

"If it is placed in effect in the Southeast, I expect it will be broadened to cover practically the entire country."

A third distributor said "If Standard Oil begins allocating sales, we are sure to follow suit."

in everything but the price!

Sure you want a high hat overcoat. Everybody does. You don't buy an overcoat every year—but when you do, it's got to be a good one. So get an eyeful of these grand coats, at Bond's. Here's high hat needlework from the hands of Rochester's finest needle craftsmen. High hat styling by Rochester masters of design. High hat wools from America's finest looms. All built roomy through the shoulders, smartly draped through the body, light on your frame yet cozy warm on the coldest day. Sounds like the build-up to a high hat price, doesn't it? NOT ON YOUR LIFE! Remember—this is Bond's, mister! Bond's—where as little as $35.00 buys an overcoat with all the regal qualities for which Rochester is famous. Yes, Bond's famous bee-line—direct from workroom to show room—always makes price behave! What's more, these beauties will cost you not one cent more than last year. See them for yourself—you'll agree that they're the handsomest crop of overcoats Bond has ever shown.

Mail, Snow Mar Royal Honeymoon

ABERDEEN, Scotland, Nov. 28 (INS)—Britain's royal honeymooners arrived at Birkhall Lodge on Balmoral Castle estate in a heavy hailstorm.

Princess Elizabeth and Prince Philip, Duke of Edinburgh, will spend the second part of their honeymoon at the Scottish retreat.

Argentine Foreign Trade Highest in History

BUENOS AIRES, Nov. 28 (AP)—The Argentine Government reported today its total foreign trade for September was the highest in history and that exports for that month were 458,000,000 pesos ($114,000,000) and imports 570,000,000 pesos ($142,000,000).

During the first nine months of 1947, the government said, it had a favorable balance of trade of 88,000,000 pesos ($22,000,000). It said Great Britain was the heaviest purchaser of Argentine goods, with the United States second and Italy third.

STILL HUNGRY

CAPE ELIZABETH, Me., Nov. 28—Those who like white meat were out of luck here at the home of Nathan H. Sullivan, Jr., and those who like dark weren't exactly happy, either.

For while 14 hungry people sat about for Thanksgiving dinner, someone smelled smoke. Mrs. Sullivan dashed to the oven to find a big turkey completely black and enveloped in flames.

Mikolajczyk Says Russians Rule Poland

NEW YORK, Nov. 26 (INS)—Stanislaw Mikolajczyk, fugitive Polish vice-premier, revealed today that 230,000 security police and 150,000 Russian soldiers have Poland completely under their thumb.

He told a news conference that the political prisons were always filled with "at least 70,000 opponents of the Communist regime."

The Polish Peasant Party leader described his country as a "slave state."

All freedom of expression or thought has been completely wiped out, he asserted.

Mikolajczyk said labor strikes were considered "sabotage against the state."

He said he will join with other exiled eastern European leaders in the U. S. to fight Soviet control over their homelands.

The Polish leader said anyone who expressed dissatisfaction with conditions "is thrown out of his job, deprived of his ration card, or arrested, thus making it impossible for the man to work or eat."

Mikolajczyk asserted if free elections were allowed in Poland today, "the Communists would receive less than 50 per cent of the total national vote."

He added: "A confidential report by Polish Secret Police indicated that 74 per cent of the people would vote for the Polish Peasant Party in a free election."

2 More Reich Officials Flee Russian Zone

BERLIN, Nov. 26 (AP)—American and British-licensed newspapers here reported today the flight of two more German officials from Thuringia in the Russian occupation zone to the western zone.

They were identified as a Herr Lemke, chief of the coal control ministry, and one Zemkusch, chief of petroleum control.

House Opens War Frauds Quiz Tuesday

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23 (AP)

—The Congressional hunt for fraud in war contracting moves into the House wing of the Capitol next week with an advance hint that more uninformed purchasing officers may be called to account.

Rep. Bender (R.) of Ohio, chairman of an expenditures subcommittee in charge of the inquiry, told a reporter today he is not out to compete with the Senate War Investigating Committee but thinks his group will match the record of the Senate body.

It was a war investigating subcommittee which unearthed the story of Maj. Gen. Bennett E. Meyers' extra-curricular activities as an Air Force purchasing officer.

"We are not out hunting headlines," Bender said, "but we have been working hard on this (House committee inquiry) for several months. We have jurisdiction over all purchasing, military and the rest, and we have some fraud cases on plane contracts ready to go."

ACTIVE PROGRAM

Bender declined to comment on any specific case. But he said investigators have been looking into the relations of several wartime purchasing officers with manufacturers later listed as having been highly overpaid by the government.

The committee, he added, plans to review these transactions to determine whether any of the officers were being cut in on the contracts.

The committee's first session on Monday will be held behind closed doors. On Tuesday it will open hearings on an audit of the Reconstruction Finance Corp.

From the audit, Bender said, the committee will go into the R.F.C.'s purchasing activities, and some of the airplane contracts in question may be brought to light at that time.

School Delegates Hear Bishop Nash

Rt. Rev. Norman B. Nash, Episcopal bishop of Massachusetts, was scheduled to address delegates from 50 independent and public schools this afternoon, when they gather for the annual conference of the New England Student Government Ass'n at Milton Academy.

During the two-day conference, the academy will celebrate its 150th anniversary.

Headmaster Arthur B. Perry will welcome the delegates. After Bishop Nash has spoken, panel forums will be held on subjects including the United Nations, improved student-faculty relations and student council programs.

Albert W. Silk Funeral Monday

Funeral services for Albert W. Silk, 75, of Fairview st., Winthrop, who retired three years ago after many years as a Boston Record-American printer, will be held Monday at 2 p. m. at the Baptist Church, Winthrop. Burial will be in Winthrop Cemetery.

Silk was a member of the Pleasant Park Yacht Club, Winthrop, and the Revere Aerie of Eagles. He leaves five sons and five daughters.

24 Archbishop Pays Honor to Prelate

BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN, FRIDAY, NOV. 24, 1947
Abp. Cushing presided today at a pontifical mass of requiem in St. Catherine's Church, Somerville, for the Most Rev. Louis J. Keller, late auxiliary archbishop of Boston and pastor of St. Catherine's.

The mass was chanted by Most Rev. John J. Wright, D. D., present auxiliary bishop of Boston. Rev. John J. McMahon, present pastor of St. Catherine's, served as arch-priest; Rev. Donald W. Whalen, D. C. L., as deacon; Rev. John E. Connor as sub-deacon, and Rev. John J. Kelly as master of ceremonies.

In the sanctuary sat Rt. Rev. Msgr. Augustine F. Hickey, vicar-general of the archdiocese. Thirty other priests were in the church. Chaplains to Abp. Cushing were Rev. Francis L. Moran, S. T. L., and Rev. Alfred E. Butler.

Blazing Army Boat Defies Fire Fighters

A small but stubborn fire in the boiler room of a 65-foot Army boat, used to supply harbor installations, defied combined efforts of several fire companies and a fire boat today as it burned steadily from early forenoon until afternoon at the Army Base, South Boston.

At times there were more than 11 pieces of apparatus engaged in battling the blaze, discovered by a civilian employee. Cause of the fire and extent of the damage were not immediately determined.

HURT IN FALL FROM TRAIN

George H. Sunderland, 72, of Hancock st., Lawrence, retired railway engineer, suffered head injuries today when he fell from the platform of a Boston-bound passenger train as it passed through the B. & M. East Somerville yards.

Retail Store Sales Up 13 P.C. In October

BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN, FRIDAY, NOV. 26, 1947

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28 (INS) —The Commerce Department reported today that retail store sales in October totaled $10,025,000,000, 13 per cent above the year-ago level.

The department added, however, that after allowance for seasonal factors and a difference in the number of trading days, sales increased only slightly above September.

Sales in general merchandise, apparel, home furnishings and jewelry fell off after a sharp spurt in the previous month, but were balanced by increases in food stores, eating and drinking places and automotive stores.

Apparel store sales, after seasonal adjustments, were estimated at about 5 per cent below September, while those in the general merchandise group were down about 3 per cent.

Sales at food stores were up nearly 5 per cent.

Wheat, Oats Again Hit New Highs

By Associated Press

More records toppled today under the pressure of rising prices on most major commodity exchanges.

On the Chicago Board of Trade wheat earmarked for December delivery hit a 30-year high of $3.16½ a bushel and December oats sold at $1.28½, a new all-time high for any oats contract. The May wheat contract also joined the select $3 a bushel circle.

Cotton futures advanced into new seasonal high ground in New York, with mid-morning prices $1 to $1.95 a bale higher, December $3.81 cents a pound.

Hogs, cattle and sheep were higher at the Chicago stockyards and eggs and butter futures advanced on the Chicago Mercantile Exchange.

Meanwhile, a retail boost of 63 cents a ton on coal was announced for the Pittsburgh district and the U. S. Rubber Co. raised prices 6 to 8 per cent on passenger car tires, 5 to 7 per cent on truck tires and 5 to 7½ per cent on tractor tires. The Sun Oil Co. said it would increase by 50 cents a barrel the price paid for crude oil.

Mrs. Alice G. Finnegan, Mother of Priest, Dies

Mrs. Alice G. Finnegan of Samoset st., Dorchester, mother of Rev. Frank W. Finnegan of the Sacred Heart Church, East Cambridge, died after a brief illness at Carney Hospital. She had been connected with Suffolk Superior Court for 35 years.

Besides Fr. Finnegan, she leaves two other sons, Raymond P., assistant editor of the Boston Globe, and Paul E. Finnegan of Dorchester.

ERROR BREAKS CITY

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 28 (AP) — The bookkeeper who made that error in the Indianapolis city accounts was no piker. The mistake was for $330,000.

As a result of the error, Mayor-Elect Al Feeney, Democrat, will take over a city that is busted on Jan. 1 when the Republican regime goes out.

C. S. Ober, city controller, who announced the error, said that Indianapolis has $330,000 less cash on hand than the books show. He blamed "slips, hazardous bookkeeping" and said no money was missing.

43 Type O Blood Donors Answer Hospital's Plea

After receiving 43 offers from type "O" blood donors, enough for their needs, officials at the Children's Hospital today cancelled their appeal.

The request was sent out for Peter Turley, 4, son of Dr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Turley, Meredith, N. H., an anemia victim.

Operations Favored to End Fear of Pain in Hopelessly Ill

CHICAGO, Nov. 28 (AP)—A prefrontal lobotomy brain operation to relieve a fear of pain greater than the pain itself was advocated today by two renowned neurosurgeons for persons suffering from painful incurable diseases such as advanced cancer.

The operation, employed for several years in mental disorders characterized by excessive anxiety, severs communication between the frontal brain lobes and the underlying thalamus.

Writing in the Journal of the American Medical Ass'n, Drs. Walter Freeman and James W. Watts of Washington, who have performed more than 400 prefrontal lobotomies, said:

"It would seem the emotional component—the consciousness of the (affected) part and the anticipation of the future disability—contributes to the distress of the patient.

"In many cases the attitude of the patient toward his disease is more disabling than the disease itself; the fear of pain, greater than the pain.

"With prefrontal lobotomy the physician now has it in his power to relieve the fear, the anticipation, and render the illness more tolerable to the patient."

The prefrontal lobes are the brain centers of foresight and insight that distinguish man from lower animals. The thalamus or "emotional" brain tissue governs a person's unconscious and automatic functions. When either starts running wild, the impulses between them can be short-circuited by the operation.

Baby Orphaned As 4 Die in Crash

AUBURN, N. Y., Nov. 28 (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Mario E. Ferro had their new-born son baptized yesterday and then set out for a Thanksgiving Day baptismal dinner at their home.

Their automobile was struck by a Lehigh Valley train at a West Auburn crossing, killing four persons in the car—Ferro, 35; his wife, Josephine, 28; their daughter, Delores, 5, and a nephew, John De Marzio, 2, son of Mr. and Mrs. John De Marzio. Rachelle De Marzio, 3, daughter of the De Marzios, was hospitalized with a skull injury. The Ferros had left their son at the church to ride with Mr. and Mrs. De Marzio in another car.

Thieves Rob Saugus Home of $5000

The postholiday mood of Mr and Mrs. Frank Coghiano, Lincoln ave., Saugus, was that they didn't have as much to be thankful for as they thought.

Early this morning, after spending Thanksgiving elsewhere, they returned to find their second floor apartment, over Coghiano's grocery store, had been ransacked by thieves who stole $4000 in bills and $1000 in jewelry.

OWNER OF 80-FT. ELM HAS CITY TREED

CLEVELAND, Nov. 23 (AP)—A $40,000 price tag had the city temporarily stymied today in its efforts to cut down an 80-foot elm tree described as an air traffic hazard.

The elm belongs to Karl Olsen, who set the price for the tree, six acres of land and his house after refusing to allow the city to chop it down and pay damages.

The city must have it removed before the Civil Aeronautics Administration will permit use of a new "blind" landing system through which planes will be guided down at the municipal airport by radio beams. CAA officials insist that a 500-foot area on either side of the glide path's center be clear of obstructions. The three is in that area.

The property was valued at $25,000 in an appraisal made for the city, but Olsen said he was able to make $5000 on the land by parking cars at the national air races and his $40,000 figure actually was too low.

"I planted that elm myself 43 years ago, when I was a kid on my father's farm," Olsen said. "If that tree is cut down so the planes can use the glide path of obstructions. The tree is in homes."

The city is planning to take the matter to court.

36 George Dietrich, Linked With Coster-Musica Swindle, Dies

ROSLYN, N. Y., Nov. 28 (AP)—George Dietrich, brother of the late Donald Coster-Musica whose schemes involved the vast McKesson and Robbins Drug domain in a $21,000,000 swindle a decade ago, died here yesterday.

Dietrich, assistant treasurer of the drug firm at the time and a leading government witness in the trial that followed disclosure of the gigantic swindle, died of leukemia, attacks of the Roslyn Park Hospital, which he entered several weeks ago, said.

His home was in Fairfield, Ct. Dietrich, described by the prosecution as the closest ally of Coster-Musica, was sentenced to two and a half years in prison May 22, 1940, after he and other officials of the company were tried on charges involving federal mail fraud and conspiracy.

Coster-Musica committed suicide in December, 1933, after an investigation of the drug firm's operations.

Dietrich, who was 53, is survived by his widow, the former Claire Klinger; four sons, George, Jr., Edmund, Donald and Gerald; two daughters, Claire and Arlene, all of Fairfield, and two brothers, Robert and Arthur, both of New York city.

The family continued to use the name Dietrich in Fairfield after the exposing of the McKesson and Robbins scandal revealed that the Dietrichs and Coster, known before his death as Dr. P. Donald Coster, were brothers with the family name Musica.

Crowd Welcomes Curley Returning to City Hall

BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN, FRIDAY, NOV. 26, 1941

Resumes Duties as Mayor—Mayor Curley (hatless, right foreground) moves slowly through the throng of persons that gathered outside City Hall today to welcome him on his return to resume his duties as the city's chief executive after an absence of five months. He shook hands with a number of the greeters while others cheered him from the windows of adjoining buildings.

Half Left—Aerial photo shows bow section of the U. S. Army transport Clarksdale Victory wedged on the rocks of Hippa Island, 140 miles southwest of Ketchikan, Alaska. Coast Guardmen found four crew members on the island and the bodies of four others. The rest of the 51-man crew is believed to have drowned when the vessel split in two.

GODLESS MEN IN KREMLIN

THE BITTER REASON the United States must PREPARE FOR WAR as the sole means of KEEPING OUT OF WAR, as Representative A. M. Goff of Idaho declared in a recent patriotic address at the historic Valley Forge encampment site, is that:

"One hard, ruthless cordon of bitter and GODLESS MEN, who sit in the Kremlin, has ripped our post-war world apart."

The United States has no CHOICE but that of adequate preparedness for war, including a peacetime establishment of UNIVERSAL MILITARY TRAINING, said Mr. Goff, because the heads of the Russian state LEAVE US NO OTHER CHOICE.

"We cannot REASON, we cannot CO-OPERATE, with such a group," he declared.

"We speculate with horror upon what might have been the situation in the world today had the first atomic bomb been produced by the Soviet."

The American people have never WANTED a war, and have never CAUSED a war.

The American people do not NOW want war or offer any cause for it to any other nation.

But in spite of all these facts, the United States is imminently menaced by war and unless the American people become alert to their danger and re-establish their institutions of national defense and augment them with a permanent and compulsory system of Universal Military Training, our present illusions of peace will be dissolved by the coterie of men scheming and designing in Russia for world conquest and domination—so well called by Mr. Goff "the Godless men of the Kremlin."

Even so, as the Idaho statesman counseled at Valley Forge, war with Russia is not inevitable.

Let the United States in all possible ways and at the earliest possible time be PREPARED TO DEFEND ITSELF, he urged, and even though Russia might still scheme and conspire for our destruction, her evil hand would be stayed and THE ATTACK NEED NEVER COME.

HOWEVER UNWELCOME the necessity of it may be, the absolute capacity to DEFEAT RUSSIA IN WAR is the only means we can have to assure ourselves of KEEPING OUT OF WAR WITH RUSSIA.

That is the fact with which America must confront Russia.

Universal Military Training is the only DEMOCRATIC instrument available to the American people to make every American citizen COMPETENT to act proficiently and promptly in the defense of his country.

Any preparation for national defense less than this would be LESS THAN THE MINIMUM SAFEGUARDS AGAINST FUTURE WAR.

The Congress of the United States, at least in the course of its next regular session and during the present special session if possible, should PUT NOTHING AHEAD OF THE PEACE AND SAFETY OF THE UNITED STATES.

The establishment of a system of universal military training must be the FIRST ORDER OF BUSINESS IN THAT AMERICAN PROGRAM.

GET THAT POWER

THE THREATENED fuel oil famine is a challenge to every New England Senator, Representative and State Legislator to file at least one bill for the development and use of the tremendous volumes of hydro-electric power which is going to waste in the section's scandalously neglected rivers.

We have neither coal nor petroleum in New England, BUT WE HAVE WATER POWER IN ABUNDANCE.

Only by taking advantage of it can we achieve self-sufficiency and escape the hardships that result from being needlessly and dangerously dependent on other parts of the country.

The Senator, Representative or State Legislator who deplores the oil shortage and does nothing about water power is betraying the people who reposed their faith in him.

CONSUMER RESISTANCE to high prices and poor quality is increasing. My girl friend apparently has joined the rebellion. Last night she ordered an Idaho baked potato priced on the a la carte menu at forty-five cents. The waiter brought an undersized spud. My girl friend said: "Please take this back and get me the Idaho baked potato I ordered. Never in the history of Idaho has that state grown a potato as small as that." The waiter took back the potato and soon returned with one of the usual Idaho size.

SIDEGLITS: Among the recent things originated by men of inventive genius is a noiseless popcorn bag for use in theaters. . . . Parisian Dress Designer Christian Dior is responsible for the long skirt style. A l Dior's models, all his best customers, all the women he most admires are tall women with small waists. Only this type of women look well in long skirts. Or so this department has been informed by an expert on the subject.

MECHANICS: Alexandria, Va., subscriber speaks highly of a woman auto mechanic in his town. Says she is better than any man mechanic there. That's not astonishing. War industry with its many feminine workers proved that women are better mechanics than men.

ASKING: Queries from clients. Q—It's the old, old story in our town; all the nice men are married. What section has the most eligible unmarried males? A—Nevada has the highest percentage of bachelors. But they are hard to get. The easiest place to get a husband is in Brooklyn. Brooklynites are born husbands, very easy to lead to the altar. Q—My charming wife whom I dearly love is not without her faults. She smokes cigarettes in bed. Twice she has started fires. How can I stop this? A—First order her to stop the practice, calling attention to the "obey" in the marriage ceremony. If that fails, just remove the cigarette from her mouth and extinguish it. If she continues to resist then all you can do is to get fireproof bedclothes and ask her to wear an asbestos nightgown.

MULES & MEN: The average Englishman looks from five to fifteen years younger than his wife. In this country it is usually the other way around. But it may not be in the future. The number of men interested in a rejuvenated appearance is increasing daily. As is the number of establishments devoted to restoring the youthful face and figure of the middle-aged male. American wives do not view this situation with pleasure. All women in this country want to look at least 10 years younger than their husbands.

SCHOOL DAYS: At what age did you start to battle with the intricacies of arithmetic? I was between six and seven when I first presented my bright and shining little face at the public school on 25th st. and Pleasant ave., Manhattan. Don't recall how soon after I began to put down two and carry three and so on. However, according to Dr. Maria Montessori, originator of the Montessori system of juvenile education, I was off to a late start. Dr. Montessori, now in India, starts teaching arithmetic to children three and a half years old. At five years of age these youngsters start on algebra.

VEGETARIANS: What do you think of this for a Thanksgiving dinner menu? Rigotte pot cheese and salad as a main dish. Trimmings: baked potatoes and yams, fruit, nuts, apple juice and cookies. That is what the Vegetarian Society of New York annually has as its Thanksgiving Day banquet.

ASIDES: In San Francisco the price of a haircut may soon be raised to a dollar and 25 cents. The price of an excellent haircut in our vicinity in a high-class and long established barber shop is 90 cents. The Home of Green Apple Pie Restaurant in Seattle, Wash., which offers a complete menu but specializes in apple pie for dessert, sells an average of 90,000 pies a year.

BRIEFLY: A student of life among the married says: "Most husbands begin to tire of their wives in about 10 years." How are things at your house? . . . Ever hear of smiling lessons? One business outfit employs a man to teach its sales staff how to smile properly. The smiling lessons resulted in a sales increase of 15 per cent. FAIR ENOUGH

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

Copyright, 1947, King Features Syndicate

NEW YORK, Nov. 28—This is a continuation of the story about Otto H. Frobe, the secretary-treasurer of Local 100 of the Teamsters' Union, of Cincinnati.

Frobe says he speaks for 4000 drivers whose family responsibilities embrace 10,000 persons. The pay of 3000 of them ranges between 81 cents and $1 an hour. Union officials are paid well to draw good contracts for the members.

Frobe's excuse for inadequacy of the scale accepted by Local 100 in 1945 was that the National Association of Manufacturers scrapped price controls and drove up the cost of living.

The truth is that President Truman scrapped price controls just before election last year and the elected Congress, representing the people of the United States, and not the N. A. M., repealed the O. P. A.

Frobe does not contemplate in his article the possibility that incompetent bargaining exposed these 10,000 people to poverty, and that the bargaining agent therefore should be fired like anyone else who has failed and caused a ghastly mess.

IN APRIL, 1942 a petition was filed in the Cincinnati Court of Common Pleas by Otto Frobe and other members of Local 100, charging that Brocky Farrell, as trustee or dictator of Local 100 and 10 other unions for 24 years, had failed to account for an amount between five and ten million dollars.

Later, appearing in court, Frobe's attorney, J. W. Brown, said he believed the amount which had come under Farrell's control might be between 30 and 40 million dollars.

Farrell had been named trustee by Dan Tobin, in 1918. The dictatorship was set up so long ago that many of the original members were dead, and the plaintiffs didn't know exactly when it began. They thought it started in 1913, five years of the true date.

Most of the members in 1942 had never known the privilege of voting for an elective officer or speaking out in meeting for or against a wage scale or an assessment.

Tobin has the right to seize a local and its treasury and paralyze a revolt against shocking conduct and conditions in his own administration. Tobin has been national boss for 41 years.

Farrell grabbed not only Local 100, but in a fast sweep of aggression overran the other 10 Cincinnati locals. From that time on, no teamster was a man in his union.

WHAT ELSE did Frobe say against Farrell? He said Farrell refused to let the members hold meetings, that he surrounded himself with thugs, raised the dues from $2 to $3 a month and charged $75 initiation to keep out applicants who might make trouble, but accepted $5 from his own following.

Frobe named Charles Farrell, the old fellow's son, co-defendant.

Charlie was and is an international organizer. The constitutional pay for this job is $15,000, or about $300 a week, by contrast with the average of $40 a week which is the best that Frobe could get for the men after the dictator finally was withdrawn.

Frobe's attorney told Judge Stanley Struble that Brocky flashed a $5000 diamond at the Seattle convention of the teamsters and said he was giving it to one of the big shots. There weren't many bigger than himself.

Frobe said Brocky blacklisted all drivers who tried to wrest back their locals from him and when Farrell claimed credit for raising wages from $12 to $40 a week; the obvious retort was that all prices rose and the dollar dwindled in a quarter of a century. Many non-union teamsters were getting more.

FARRELL CALLED ON John F. English, the national auditor from Indianapolis, to say that he had audited accounts, but the judge dismissed him when he admitted that he had never audited anything.

During his reign, Brocky was a high-roller in the Kentucky joints across the Ohio river. Old King Dan also bets a few stacks when he is wintering at his royal palace in Miami Beach.

Once when some sucker hit the jackpot on the dollar machine Brocky tried to claim it. When the fracas ended he was wearing for his princely crown an 18-karat Waterbury brass goboon.

The outcome? Oh, the court ordered that each of four lawyers be paid $5000 out of the union's funds. One of the selfless servants of the American toiler who grabbed $5000 for touching his fingers to a few papers was Joe Padway, who died at the teamsters' convention in San Francisco a few weeks ago.

The International Teamster, Tobin's official monthly paper briefly reported that Padway had ironed out the trouble but said nothing about the $5000.

Sub Sunk Outside Boston

BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN, FRIDAY, NOV. 28, 1947

1—EXPERIMENTAL TORPEDO RACES TOWARD SUBMARINE

2—WATER AND SMOKE SPOUT SKYWARD AT IMPACT

3—DEBRIS MIXES WITH SMOKE AS SUB SINKS

Early Christmas—Smiling Joseph Rizzuto, 7, of St. Albans, L. I., plays under his Christmas tree as he celebrates the Yuletide on Thanksgiving Day. Joey's an invalid and doctors fear that the boy, suffering from leukemia, will not live until Christmas. Scores of neighbors and relatives joined the youngster for the special celebration.

Direct Hit—An experimental torpedo is fired by the submarine USS Toros (upper left), toward the former German U-Boat, U-530, during tests 40 miles northeast of Cape Cod, due east of Boston. The torpedo makes direct hit (upper right), making atomic-bomb pattern. The sub billows with smoke and debris (above) as it sinks. Four former Nazi subs were sent to the bottom during the Navy tests.

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 28—Robert Stack is off to a wonderful start on the M-G-M lot. The rich, blond and good-looking Bob gets the male lead opposite Judy Garland in "Peg O' My Heart" right after he finishes "Date with Judy" (only it's with Jane Powell) on the same lot.

From here on in, I'm sure all the bad breaks are going to this boy whom I've known ever since with Barbara Stanwyck only to come down with pneumonia after 10 days' shooting?

"Peg O' My Heart" is a Joe Pasternak production, which means it will be a musical.

MY WATER on The Chief, Bob Groves, is 73 years old today and is retiring after 43 years with the Santa Fe.

He says he followed Diamond Jim Brady's advice and never married. Now he may marry because he'll have time for a wife. He has waited on many celebrities and says Bing Crosby is his favorite movie star. Bing told him he ought to marry a young wife and raise a family.

During his 43 years, Bob served Hetty Green, who once gave him a nickel tip, John D. Rockefeller, who handed him one of his famous 10-cent pieces, Lillian Russell and Anna Held.

EVER SINCE my little dog, Jimmy Martin, married Ella Raines' blonde cocker spaniel, everything Ella does seems like "family" to me.

So I couldn't be more pleased than to hear that she gets the official star billing at Universal-International in "The Salem Frigate," which is Maxwell Shane's and Maxwell Geffen's first independent at that studio.

I LIKE the idea of Dorothy Lamour for "The Life Story of Helen Morgan." Dottie's years younger than the girl who used to sit on a piano twisting a handkerchief—but she's the same type, which is unusual in movie biographies. Betty Grable and June Haver looked about as much like the Dolly sisters as I do.

Be that as it may—Dorothy is the girl Leonard Hoffman wants for Helen Morgan—and Leonard not only owns the rights but he has written the original script okayed by Lillian's family.

CHATTER IN HOLLYWOOD: When I heard back East that Rita Hayworth had a serious romance, I didn't give it much. Somebody is always trying to make Rita's heart affairs sound more important than she considers them.

But it seems to be something really worth watching with Michael Graham, former R.A.F. pilot, with whom she dines and dances almost every night. Their favorite spot is the Cafe Hay at the beach.

As soon as I get my hat off and settle down, I'll have to get a line on this Mr. Graham.

SNAPSHOTS OF HOLLYWOOD collected at random: Mrs. Paul Lukas spent a bleak Thanksgiving in the Cedary of Lebanon Hospital after a hip injury.

When Johnny Weissmuller opens his water show in London Feb. 23, Belita will be his co-star. Johnny will be in the water and Belita will swim as well as ice skate. They do a routine together, which, I hear, brings down the tank. And while she is over there, Belita wouldn't mind making a couple of movies.

The beautiful Rita Rendi with Jimmy Ritz again at the Mocambo. I thought this had chilled.

Now that Peter Lind Hayes is well enough to travel, Grace, his ma, is going with him and Mary Healy to Florida for their next club stint.

Somebody—somebodies, in fact—is giving Alwater Kent a party. The likeable millionaire, who hosts more parties than anyone else, will be the honor guest at a birthday luncheon Dec. 3 at the Beverly Hills Hotel. The invitations are cute—like a kid party. Oh, yes, the hostesses are Margaret Ellinger and Verbera Hebbard.

Even Clare Boothe Luce wanted to hear Kay Thompson and spent one of her first nights in Hollywood at Ciro's. Same night, same place, Otto Preminger showed up with a beauty, Pat Walker. All of Otto's dates are here.

Joseph Bernard, head of Film Classics, announces 14 new pictures will be distributed by his company in 1948. Cathy Downs is the star of the first titled, "For You I Die," and is also set for the second, "Ambush."

blouse the other evening at Perle Mesta's cocktail party for the newspaper girls. This was a 5 to 8 affair, at which the ladies of the press kept their pencils and notebooks out of sight but their minds alert. However, there was practically no bloodshed in report.

At Perle's party—"You can bring Perle, she's a darn nice girl"—Miss Truman danced with Rep. James C. Fulton of Pennsylvania, one of our eligible congressional bachelors—but Fulton must have got mislead somewhere because six minutes after Perle's party folded Margaret showed up at the Shoreham with Marvin Braverman, personable young attorney of the Reconstruction Finance Corp.

The rumba'd energetically, Miss Truman being very proficient at same. And she still had on her "new look" ensemble.

I guess civilization is stuck with those long skirts for a while. Bongo, bongo, bongo, I wanna leave the Congo—

SPEAKER of the House Joe Martin was regaling colleagues (Republican, with details of his recent exploit in knocking off 1900-pound buffalo near Rapid City, S. D.

"It was the first time I ever shot anything in my life, even a Democrat," said the Hon. Joe. "I got it dead on with a .30-30."

"I suppose," asked a columnist, who is always suspecting something, "that you will be a confirmed huntsman from now on?"

"I will not," retorted the Hon. Joe. "In fact, I have just turned down an invitation from former Gov. Neil Smith of Wyoming to come out there and shoot an elk."

"Why wouldn't you accept?" "Because," explained the speaker solemnly, "I am an Elk and I told Gov. Smith I couldn't bring myself to shoot a lodge brother."

COLUMNIST'S DAY: 10 a. m., Beacon and Tremont, political gossip: If the Republicans nominate a presidential candidate from the West, chances are that Speaker

Joe Martin will be the nominee for vice-president. Joe has confided to friends that he does not want it. But he would consent if it would help the party's chances. . . 10:15 a. m., at the Parker House Brunch bar, we learn that investigators for the U. S. Senate Taber Committee moved into a Federal government department in Boston, sealed the filing cabinets with adhesive tape (that's routine with them) and learned some things that weren't routine with them. This is a guessing game for city editors, and the clues are: 10c, $25 and $1500.

11 A. M. OUR NEWEST Congressman, Don Nicholson, is off for Washington without waiting to keep the tradition of Thanksgiving at home. He's that eager to plunge into the heart of things. With him he takes his personal traditions of eating corned beef and cabbage every Thursday (except Thanksgiving) and reading the Bible regularly . . . 11:30 a. m. A senator presiding that the next Senate president, in place of Don, will be Harris Richardson, the Winchester grocer.

12:30 P. M. WE ARE ASKED why that legislative committee held a meeting Monday at John Adams Hospital, Chelsea. The committee is reconsidering an appropriation already made for a second state veterans hospital on land donated by the city of Holyoke. Answer: John Adams Hospital would like a new building rather than see a hospital built in the western part of the state. The Federal hospital program is being used as an argument against the Holyoke project. . . 1:30 p. m. A friend phones that the Bureau of Federal Supply (Treasury Department), handled all lend-lease and UNRRA procurement here. And who is going to procure for aid to Europe with the bureau wiped out (except for paper and envelopes) and 50 employees fired?

2 P. M. A FEDERAL official phones that the government is paying $5 a ton for coal for England (where miners won't work) and $12 a ton for freight on the same. . . 2:30 p. m. We learn that Col. Nance, our Veterans Administration chief, is going to Washington for a farewell party tonight for Gen. Bradley. And taking with him contributions solicited from managers of VA hospitals and regional offices in New England for a gift for Mrs. Bradley.

3 P. M. A MESSENGER brings Mrs. Leverett Saltonstall's recipe for that Goal of Plenty (GOP) cookbook of the Women's Republican Club. The Senator's wife wrote Mrs. Verity Smith: "Here is Della Lyons' brown bread recipe that is a special favorite of Levvy's (when he can get it). She makes it with honey and even oatmeal when she can't get corn meal. This comes from Leverett's mother's house, not mine. I wish I could produce some lovely ones that I have conjured up myself but I stick to the simplest dishes when I do the cooking. And here it is: Boston Brown Bread. One cup yellow corn meal. One cup Graham flour. One-half cup white flour. One cup molasses. One cup milk. Two eggs. One teaspoon soda. One teaspoon salt. Steam about three hours."

4 P. M. A NOTE from Phil Regan: He is elated because Bostonians have dropped in at the Plaza's Persian Room in New York to hear him sing—including Governor's Councilor Sonny McDonough and his wife, Helen, with Judge and Mrs. Tom Pappas; Temporary Mayor Hynes and Andrew Dazzi with their wives; Pete Clonerty, assistant city greeter, and Rep. Charley Artesani. 5 p. m. At the Parker House we find Joe Carroll, one-time assistant U. S. attorney, and Edmund O'Callaghan, relaxing after the Mary Briarty will contest (and Ed resisting all attempts to entice him to Florida for openings of new night-club).

8 P. M. CARL BRISSON in the Statler's Terrace Room is singing: "I thought that perfume was the only way to win a woman's heart. So, to save a lot of time, I thought that I should start—with a bottle of 'Surrender,' and how I hope she would like it." Singer, Actor. Ex-light heavyweight champion of Denmark (cruiser weight, he calls it). Theater and hotel owner. Skating companion of Scandinavian kings . . . 9 p. m. Carl is finishing his 18th number to the applause of 300 men, women and children . . . 10 p. m. The Copley Plaza's Oval Room, and Cappy O'Connell's deep, delectable voice: "Blue skies smilin' at me now! But blue skies do I see." . . . Midnight: Dorchester's great Ray Bolger has us rolling from our chair, with his opening night Charleston and Conga, Rumba and Samba, the Scarecrow from the Wizard of Oz, and old Sad Sack.

1 A. M. ROOM 902 Statler. The Brissons are having us in for smorgasbord with the Dr. Victor Dahls of Lowell (Victor, an American veteran of World War I, was once middleweight champion of Denmark). Carlson, the Viking's chief, who was Carl's chef at his hotel in Stockholm, has sent over Danish and American cheese, sylvia (spotted head), pate de foie gras, frikadelles (meat balls), knackebrod. 1:30 a. m. Carl is saying he's going to introduce a new song in Boston: "A Double Martini, Please." Carl, overseas, wrote the music, played it by radio telephone to Jimmy Kennedy ("Red Sails in the Sunset," "South of the Border"). He also called Jimmy his ideas in 500 words. Jimmy wrote the lyrics. Thanks for honoring Boston, Carl.

Washington Scene

Overnight, 1947, by King Features Synd., Inc.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28—One of the wisecracks around Washington is that Maj. Gen. Bennett E. Meyers clipped everybody but a sheep. Well—the Ferguson committee is on the trail of evidence that he did that, too!

This is no gag. The old kiss-and-snitchee is about to be smacked with $6,000,000 worth of sheep shearings.

Investigators, following the snaky path of the self-proclaimed Romeo's serpentine claims, have uncovered evidence that he finagled the Air Force into taking $6,000,000 worth of sheep shearings for which it had no need.

The ewe-cuttings were supposed to go into fliers' uniforms. But officers then assigned to Wright Field, Dayton, O., have told the committee they were positively not needed.

Seems that pretty near everywhere Benny went he left a trail of shorn lambs!

THERE IS ALSO a deal involving planes for the Chinese which the committee is looking into. But it hasn't got its evidence completed yet.

Many have expressed wonderment how an officer like Meyers could cut across deals the way he did; how he could horse others into going along with him.

The explanation is simple. He worked the most prevalent con racket of war-time Washington.

A high officer, dubious about Meyers' operations, would come into his office and question some deal. Benny would immediately lift the phone, ask to be connected with the White House, then ask for Harry Hopkins.

"How are you, Harry old boy?" he'd cry. "That was some time we had last night, wasn't it? The big fellow sure was in rare form! Oh, by the way, Harry—that thing we were speaking about—everything's okay isn't it?"

The "thing" he'd spoken about was probably nothing more sinister than a trip to the ball game or tickets for the symphony—but the listening officer had no way of knowing that. He'd figure that any man that close to the man closest to the President was no one to question.

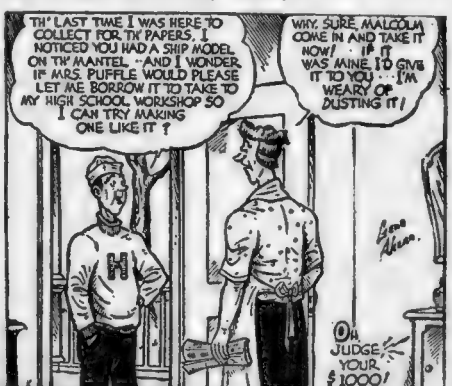

The committee has evidence that Meyers had direct and speedy access to Harry Hopkins and Treasury Secretary Morgenthau; that he called—and got them—at all hours of the day or night. Probably they had no inkling how they were being used.

I GUESS there's no use fighting against that "new look" any longer. Princess Elizabeth cemented it for Britain by coming out in long skirts—and now Margaret Truman has done it for this country.

The President's daughter showed up in long skirt and

"She just fritters her time away. I've spent the ENTIRE day trying to catch her at some work!"

Extra Yule Food for Britons

LONDON, Nov. 28 (AP)—Britain's Food Ministry today promised the people extra food rations during the Christmas season. Minister John Strachey said Britons may buy an extra six pence (10 cents) worth of meat enough for a scanty meal if sent on cheaper grades; an extra pound and a half of sugar, and an extra four ounces of candy. The British, whose rations are simpler than in the worst days of the war, ordinarily get one killing (20 cents) worth of meat and a half pound of sugar a week, and one pound of candy a month.

Youth, 22, Held as Doctors Fight to Save Knife Victim

Police today were holding a 22-year-old Roxbury youth on suspicion in connection with the stabbing of Joseph W. Marsden, 30, Roxbury fruit dealer and father of three children, while doctors at City Hospital are fighting to save the victim's life.

Officials said he was stabbed with a 10-inch butcher knife.

Fights Follow Anti-Jew Rally in London Street

LONDON, Nov. 28 (AP)—Three persons were summoned to appear in court today as the result of fighting which broke out in London's East End last night when Sir Oswald Mosley, pre-war Fascist leader, held a Jew-baiting rally in the Bethnal Green district, where many Jews live.

Police were called to disperse demonstrators who flocked in from all directions as soon as Mosley began to speak.

These Days

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

Copyright, 1947, Kline Features Synd. Inc.

MRS. ELEANOR ROOSEVELT SAID THIS:

"I have never been quite sure that in the atomic age it is quite necessary to have what is known as basic training, but I am quite sure it would be good for us to spend a year learning discipline, checking on ourselves physically and mentally, and learning such things as are needed by a citizen of the United States no matter what our service may have to be."

This is a dangerous concept, for what Mrs. Roosevelt advocates is the subjection of the individual to the disciplines of the state, not only physical but mental disciplines.

That was, of course, Hitler's concept of the relationship of the individual and the state, and it has always been the basis for the nurture and education of children in Soviet Russia. Lunacharsky created the Soviet educational system with such complete state control that no light ever entered that country from any other place. We, in this country, are beginning to suffer from this assumption on the part of the government that it has the right to discipline its people mentally by the suppression of knowledge and the falsification of information.

RECENTLY had a letter from a chief of information—public relations division of one of our government departments in which he protested this statement of mine:

"... A newspaper man must assume that all government information officers are, by the nature of their calling, professional liars often enough to justify the assumption that what they tell must be carefully scrutinized. Our own government has been notorious for its false press information for 15 years..."

His point is that all government information officers are not liars as all columnists are not liars. He takes my paragraph quite personally. He says:

"... It seems far-fetched to tear down the public's confidence in government by a general statement concerning the type of information released by government information officers to draw a similarity to the treatment accorded members of the American press 'behind or adjacent to the iron curtain.'"

BUT EVEN as he writes a controversy rages between the government and the American newspaper editors over the snide attempt of the administration, by executive order, to suppress the truth by blanketing with secrecy that which in a free country cannot be secret if the people are to have any control of their government.

In his investigation of Bennett Meyers, Sen. Ferguson did not have the co-operation of the War Department. As the record shows, that department suppressed facts, "lost" essential papers which somehow were "found" when it was obviously dangerous not to produce them.

It was the President of the United States who, after Yalta, issued a statement that contained no real information, even as we know it, and then he said that nothing else was done there except of a military nature.

That was untrue unless, by military agreements, Poland, China, the Balkans, Germany, Hungary, Czechoslovakia and much else were robbed of their freedom. In a simple word, the American people were deceived by their own government.

BUT WORSE still, our troops had practically taken Berlin. They were called back and made to wait until the Russians could come up with their antiquated and slow-moving equipment. The war was really over at that point, but we let it go on until our "ally" could arrive.

Meanwhile Germans were killing Americans. And even when the end came and a competent newspaperman, Ed Kennedy, released the truth, the Army kicked up a terrific row and deliberately falsified the facts.

The proof of the falsification lies in the fact that Kennedy has been cleared—but who gave the order for falsification? Has Congress ever investigated that?

This effort to discipline the mentality of the American people also appears in many textbooks issued to our children in tax-paid schools in which half-truths and doctrinaire positions are taught them in the hope that they will adopt "satisfactory" political attitudes as they grow up.

And, I suppose, vote the right way. And whenever anyone tries to investigate this debasement of education, he is accused of interfering with academic freedom—that accusation itself being a lie.

William H. Doyle Reported In Critical Condition

2 Women Wed To Each Other Are Jailed

SANTA ROSA, Cal., Nov. 23 (INS).—Two young women who underwent a ceremony of marriage to each other five months ago were arraigned before a magistrate today.

Dist. Atty. Charles McGoldrick, declaring the case was "like something out of the Arabian nights," identified the "couple" as Thelma Jane Walter, 27, and Marieta Cook.

McGoldrick said Thelma, a school teacher, was the "wife" and Marieta the "husband." They were arrested yesterday at a ranch house, where they had been living together in the Valley of the Moon, made famous in the writings of Jack London, who maintained a ranch in the valley.

The pair was placed in Santa Rosa jail for investigation of perjury in connection with an allegedly falsified marriage license.

McGoldrick said: "But I don't know yet what I will charge them with. This is the strangest case I ever heard of."

The two women, who had been living under the names of "Mr. and Mrs. David Warren," were quoted as declaring they were married last June 29 by an unsuspecting minister in a San Francisco agency investigated "him" in love and wanted to do the right thing.

Marieta, wearing dungarees, shirt and coat and with her hair combed back in mannish fashion, said:

"We fell in love while we were attending the University of California. We decided that the only way to satisfy our own moral code was to marry. We considered living together without being married very improper."

The arrest was made on a tip from the FBI which discovered Marieta was not a man when the agency investigated "him" in connection with draft evasion charges.

Holy Name Membership Drive Chairmen Named

Launching a membership drive, the Suffolk North Deanery of the Holy Name Society today named seven district chairmen to carry out the program.

Those named are Frank Doyle, District 1, South End; Gabriel Piedmonte, District 2, West End; Edward Burke, District 3, South End; Leo Ducey, Jr., District 4, East Boston; Charles Gunderson, District 5, Winthrop; Joseph D. Kelly, District 6, Charlestown; and Wilson Bowen, District 7, Chelsea, Revere and Beachmont.

TRAGIC HOUR

Five years ago tonight at 10:12, the first alarm was rung in for Boston's most tragic fire, the Coconut Grove night club holocaust which took the lives of 498 men and women.

The South End night spot was jammed with Saturday night fun seekers when a flash fire raced through the building and trapped most of the patrons.

2 Light-Plane Fliers Near End of World Trip
HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 28 (AP)—Clifford Evans and George Truman who are hopping around the world in two Piper Cub planes, plan to head east tomorrow for the last long leg of their global flight.

Truman, 39, of Los Angeles, and Evans, 27, of Washington, D. C., took off from Teterboro, N. J., Aug. 9 for an experiment which they say will demonstrate the practicability of lengthy flights in light, personal-type planes.

EX-PREMIER DENIES KILLING
SINGAPORE, Nov. 28 (AP)—Pridi Phanomyong, former premier of Siam, publicly denied allegations by the new Siamese government linking him with the assassination last year of King Ananda Mahadol. Pridi fled to Singapore after the recent coup.

Tax on Manufacture Urged As Way to Cut Income Rolls

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28 (AP)—Removal of 20,000,000 persons in the lower income brackets from the federal income tax rolls, and imposition of a 10 per cent manufacturers excise tax to make up part of the revenue loss, was proposed today by Rep. Gearhart (R.) of California.

The Californian, a member of the tax-writing House Ways and Means Committee, told newsmen the plan "would be of greatest benefit to the poor man" and that 84 per cent of 10,000 business executives polled had approved it.

Here's the kind of tax law Gearhart wants:

1—Raise the exemption of single persons from the present $300 to $1000 and of married men from $500 to $2000, with the exemption for each of the taxpayer's dependents remaining at $500.

Then cut back the tax rate so that the top take from any taxable income would be 50 per cent, instead of the present 86 per cent on the highest bracket income.

This would cut revenues by $9,700,000,000, he estimated.

2 Impose a 10 per cent manufacturers excise levy, the tax to apply as any product leaves the manufacturer to go into commerce. Food and shelter would be exempted. Gearhart said this would pick up $6,700,000,000 of revenue.

Thus the overall revenue loss would be about $3,000,000,000. Of the 48,500,000 income taxpayers, 28,500,000 would remain on the rolls with their rate of taxation reduced.

Gearhart said a nationwide association is being formed to support his tax idea.

Relieve Constipation Pleasantly!

Say "goodbye" to harsh, upsetting laxatives!

Constipation is bad enough! Why add to your troubles by taking a harsh, upsetting laxative? Next time you or your children need relief, take Ex-Lax—the easy-acting laxative that many doctors use in their practice.

Ex-Lax gets results gently. You can depend on Ex-Lax for thorough relief because it is biologically tested to assure effective action. Ex-Lax really tastes good—just like delicious chocolate! Always keep a box of Ex-Lax handy. Still only 10¢.

Ex-Lawrence High Teacher Wins Science Writing Prize

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28 (AP)—George A. Keaney, New York World-Telegram writer, today won the $1000 newspaper science writing award offered by Westinghouse Electric Corp.

Steven M. Spencer, associate editor of the Saturday Evening Post, won the same amount offered for magazine science writing.

Keaney, 41, and a newspaperman only three years, was awarded the prize for a series of five articles last March on "Blood—Still A Mystery of the Ages."

The stories told of research in blood transfusions, blood substitutions for infants, validity of paternity blood tests and studies made of the proteins in blood.

Keaney formerly taught English history at Lawrence, Mass., high school.

Spencer, 42, won his award for an article "New Hope for the Anemic" which appeared in the Saturday Evening Post, Dec. 14, 1946.

Spencer, born at Omaha, Neb., now lives at Swarthmore, Pa.

The judges named a husband and wife team, Drs. Lorus J. and Margery J. Milne, of Burlington, Vt., for honorable mention in the magazine writing contest. This citation was for an article on small animals and plants. It appeared in the magazine Natural History in June.

Our years of experience give you the utmost in quality and service—plus unsurpassed values.

Population Of U. S. Now 144,708,000

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28 (AP)—The United States population was 144,708,000 on Oct. 1, the census bureau estimated today.

The record figure includes the armed forces, whose strength was 587,000 overseas and 748,000 at home. The civilian population alone was 143,373,000.

The bureau said the population has increased more than 13,000,000, or almost 10 per cent, in the seven and one-half years since the last census was taken April 1, 1940.

In the 1930-1940 period, the gain was less than 9,000,000 persons, or 7.2 per cent.

British Conservatives Retain Commons Seat

LONDON, Nov. 28 (AP)—The Conservative Party retained its House of Commons seat in the East Yorkshire constituency of Howdenshire yesterday, rolling up a plurality of 10,227 votes for its candidate, George W. Odey, in a three-cornered by-election race.

In an East Edinburgh by-election, the Labor Party kept its seat, with John Wheatley, lord advocate in the Attlee government, as the winner. The Labor Party's record of retaining every Laborite seat at stake in by-elections since 1945 thus remained unbroken.

Airborne Turkeys

Regale Yanks in Japan

SENDAI, Japan, Nov. 28 (AP)—Airborne turkeys reached a military government team at Akita, on northern Honshu, in time for Thanksgiving dinner.

A commissary train arrived from Yokohama with the turkeys Wednesday night, too late for land delivery. So the 11th airborne division dispatched Lieut. James K. Sterling of Clearfield, Pa., to fly the 110 miles over 5000-foot mountains with the fowl.

Rheumatic Pains?

take this sufferer's advice

Mr. I. K. Wilmington, Del.
Advice every one suffering from pains of Rheumatism—Arthritis—Sciatica—to try RUMAL

He says, "God Bless You for RUMAL."

Mr. I. K. of Wilmington, Delaware, writes: "For years I have suffered with agonizing pains of Rheumatism. Nothing seemed to help much. Then a friend of mine suggested that I try a preparation called RUMAL. I was skeptical but I had nothing to lose so I sent for a jar. I tried it and am happy to say that I got relief from the very first application. It's a godsend to have RUMAL in the house for when those awful pains strike, I'm prepared."

I don't care how long you have been suffering the agonies of rheumatic, arthritic, sciatic, neuralgic pains—I want you to try a remedy that is really good.

It must be good, for it has been bringing blessed palliative relief to thousands of sufferers since 1919—over 25 years. And the best part is that you don't risk one penny in trying RUMAL—you can't lose—only gain by doing it.

RUMAL is a compound of 5 powerful ingredients widely known to the medical profession as fast pain relievers.

You apply RUMAL as directed to the painful area. Soon you feel a glowing, soothing warmth as the pains disappear fast.

Tear out this adv. now as a reminder to get a jar of RUMAL for $2.00 at one of the Nature Food Centres stores listed below. Mail orders sent postpaid. Get RUMAL now! Guaranteed! If after using 1 jar of RUMAL you don't feel that it has helped you, you get your money back.

2 GOP Solons File Split Tax Bill, Ask Emergency Action

Reps. Louis Lobel of Boston and Peter J. Jordan of Revere, both Republicans, today filed with the clerk of the House of Representatives a bill providing for a community property law in Massachusetts.

Asking that it be declared an emergency law "necessary for the immediate preservation of the public convenience," the bill says: "Deferred operation of this act would tend to defeat its purpose, which is to save the people of Massachusetts $100,000,000 that they are unjustly forced to pay the Federal Government because the people of Massachusetts are being discriminated against by the Federal tax laws."

It is provided "that the Act shall apply to husbands and their property subsequent to the effective date of the Act; defining separate property and the community property of the husband and wife; for the management, control and disposition thereof, including the homestead; defining the ownership of funds on deposit in any bank or banking institution; for the rights and remedies of creditors; that either spouse may give or convey his or her community property on dissolution of marriage; for the substitution of one spouse under certain conditions for the other through legal proceedings in the management, control and disposition of community property; and for the administration and distribution of the interests of a deceased spouse in community property."

Section 3 of the proposed act reads:

"All property acquired by either husband or wife during marriage and after the effective date of this act... shall be deemed the community or common property of the husband and wife, and each shall be vested with an undivided one-half interest therein; and all the effects which the husband and wife possess at the time of marriage or be dissolved shall be regarded as common effects or gains unless the contrary be satisfactorily proved."

A special legislative recess commission now studying the advisability of the passage of a community property law in Massachusetts expects to file its report soon. It is said the commission will recommend passage of such a law if Congress does not act during its next regular session to wipe out the tax inequities now existing.

Congressmen To Study N.E. Oil Shortage

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28 (AP)

The Senate interstate and foreign commerce committee agreed today to name a five-man subcommittee to seek means of preventing fuel shortages in New England this winter.

Chairman White (R.) of Maine said that the situation was outlined to the closed committee by Sen. McMahon (D.) Ct. and "has my complete sympathy."

"We nearly burned to death during the summer and now we are about to freeze to death," White said in recalling recent forest fires in Maine.

The sub-committee, White said, will be named as soon as he can confer with Sen. Johnson (D.) of Colorado and that every effort will be made to expedite the group's work.

The committee will investigate the effect of exports on domestic fuel supplies, the adequacy of transportation, the availability of oil and coal stocks and potential production White said.

New England Governors have urged their members of Congress to move quickly to prevent hardship. The maritime commission has been urged to put into operation all available ships to carry oil and coal to north Atlantic ports.

Reds to War When Ready, Says Expert

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29 (AP) — A former Estonian officer who has fought with and against the Russian army says its "invincibility" is "one of the greatest legends of our time."

An article by Arnold Purree in the Reserve Officer, a monthly magazine, said the Soviet fighting force is "poorly armed, poorly equipped, poorly trained and has low morale."

But Purree added that Soviet leaders "are making every effort to catch up with and to outdistance the democracies."

The magazine said the Estonian was "absorbed" into the Red Army when his country was occupied in 1940, but escaped in 1941 and engaged in guerrilla warfare against the Russians. He now lives in Sweden and the reserve described him as one of that country's best informed experts on the Soviet army.

Said Purree:

"The Soviet Union will profess peaceful intentions only as long as she does not feel strong enough to attack. The moment, however, that she feels sure of victory, she will strike. Her military power increases, surely and inevitably, with every year that passes."

He said the German forces defeated by Russia were, after 1943, half-starved, half-frozen, poorly equipped and low in morale.

"It needs no great prowess to defeat such an army when one in one's own country, eats good American food and fights with up-to-date American weapons," Purree said.

So many Russian soldiers deserted during the war, he added, that special units of trusted Communists often were stationed behind the front lines to shoot anyone who laid down his gun.

Referring to his guerrilla experience against Soviet troops, Purree declared:

"There are numerous instances of small Estonian detachments fighting and beating Russian forces at a ratio of one Estonian against ten or more

Soviet Paper Blasts Vandenberg, Connally

MOSCOW, Nov. 28 (AP)—Izvestia — In the strongest language it has used to date in reference to members of the U. S. Congress—today accused Sen. Arthur H. Vandenberg (R.) of Michigan of "anti-Sovietism, false indignation and lying."

The Soviet government organ also leveled strong words at Sen. Tom Connally (D.) of Texas, whom it accused, with Vandenberg, of championing the cause of "American monopolists" who, Izvestia said, are seeking through the Marshall Plan to seize the economic resources of Europe.

ITALY EXPELS 73 YUGOS

ROME, Nov. 28 (INS)—The Italian government today expelled 73 Yugoslav nationals, arrested at various towns in South Italy and charged with fomenting recent riots and strikes. They were turned over to Yugoslav authorities at the frontier.

62 Plight of Indians Blamed on U. S.

By OTIS W. WILES

Special to the Boston Evening American

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 28—Upon the shoulders of the U. S. Dept. of the Interior rests the shame of the appalling plight of the Navajo Indians.

And along with the Navajos are the Hopi Indians.

The Hopis—their small reservation isolated in the area of the Navajo reservation—are facing the same problems of starvation, illness and national neglect through the coming bitter winter.

For this, the Navajos and Hopis can blame the Dept. of the Interior which manages (or mis-manages) the reservations through the Bureau of Indian Affairs, now headed by Comr. James A. Brophy.

Through rulings of the Bureau of Indian Affairs, the Navajos, the Hopi and other tribes have been denied all rights as citizens—which they are.

Except the right to bear arms in time of war for the nation that ignores and neglects them.

The Hopi reservation, in the northern regions of Arizona are in the same area as the Navajos. The Hopis are without any water resources, without any chance of expanding their grazing and agricultural lands.

HOPIS GREGARIOUS

Unlike the Navajos, however, the Hopis are a more gregarious people. Instead of living in widely separated single hogans over a vast expanse, they live in small pueblos on the mesas.

They number about 4000, therefore they have a very feeble voice in the administration of their own particular problems.

Theoretically, the Hopis were granted citizenship under the treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo in 1848.

They were made full citizens by the Congressional Act of 1924. However, as with the Navajos, the State of Arizona has refused all reservation Indians, including the Hopis, the right of franchise.

Yet, like the Navajos, the Hopis pay federal income tax, state sales tax, automobile tax, and are subject to selective service.

LESS STOCK

In 1942, 34 per cent of the Hopi income was from livestock. In 1943, the average reduction of stock on the reservation was 44 per cent.

Even the Hopi veterans of World War II are painfully feeling the pinch.

Said Paul Lewis Yestewa, commander of Hopi Post 66, American Legion, at Oraibi, Arizona:

"We have a big problem before us. The Hopi reservation, through the big reduction in livestock, has been reduced to such a small piece of land that we veterans do or cannot have the permits to start in the livestock business."

NO GI LOANS

"Those who are fortunate enough to have permits can only have nine head of cattle and only 45 sheep. That is, if you are in the cattle business you are only allowed to run nine head of cattle and if you are in the sheep business you can only run 45 to 55 head."

"All this took place while some of us were out fighting the Germans and the Japs."

"We also are denied, even as war veterans, the right to borrow money to build homes for ourselves or for any business enterprise."

"As Indians, we cannot borrow money from any bank." Like the Navajos, the Hopi death rate is abnormally high as compared with the national average.

It is approximately 25 per 1000 population.

The infant mortality is 180 per 1000 live births.

The birth rate is 40 per 1000 population.

Attack on False Versions of Santa

"Let's give Santa Claus back to the youngsters!"

That's the plea of Paul Gallico, popular feature and short story writer, who has launched an attack on false versions of Old Nick.

Gallico makes his feelings known in "There Ain't No Santa Claus!", to be featured in Sunday's Pictorial Review, the magazine with the all-star cast, distributed with the Boston Sunday Advertiser.

GREAT DAY

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Nov. 28 (AP)—Mickey Schuster, 29, who for 25 years took all his nourishment through a hole in his stomach, ate his first real Thanksgiving dinner and said, "It tasted mighty good."

Pittsburgh surgeons recently opened his esophagus—sealed shut since he accidentally swallowed lye when he was three—by lifting his stomach and attaching it to the esophagus above the closed portion.

His dinner was duck, the trimmings, and pumpkin pie.

Asked if he took a second helping, Schuster laughed and replied:

helping to see me through."

Curley Back in Mayor's Chair

right down to business and expected to take a vacation but not before February.

"I feel 10 years younger than when I left here five months ago," he said.

"Tests the other day showed my blood pressure was fine," he said. "The doctor told me that he wished he was as good, it was that of a youth of 22. Diabetic tests also showed no presence of sugar. I'm in great shape, except for my right eye, which is giving me a little trouble."

WILL SEE DOCTOR

Curley said he had an appointment with Dr. Nathaniel Faxon, of Massachusetts General Hospital, later today to discuss his eye trouble.

In response to questions, he said he had made no decision on which of the Democratic prospects he would support in next year's election. He said the same held true in the national election picture. These remarks caused considerable speculation later in the day and City Hall corridors buzzed with the possibility that the Mayor might not lend his wholehearted support to the State ticket in 1943.

He was asked if he had heard that former officials, prominent in the Tobin administration, had reappeared in City Hall corridors during his absence.

"Yes," he said, "I understand we have had some visitors here acting in an advisory capacity. But they won't be around here in the future."

Hynes said something to him in an undertone, apparently regarding a conference on city business, and Curley replied:

"Oh, there's no rush about it, John. I'll see you later today."

A short time later Hynes departed from the office, saying:

"Well, here's where I move out."

He walked along the corridor to the city clerk's office, where he will resume his duties but under life tenure granted him by the legislative act under which he became temporary mayor during Copyright, 1947, King Features Synd., Inc.

"You know something, dear? I bet you could go 10 rounds with him."

Curley's absence.

In a final statement to the press, Hynes said he would not want the post of temporary mayor again for any amount of money.

"The position of mayor today is almost too much for one man," he said. "Mayor Curley can handle it because of his long experience."

"During my service all I could do was what I thought was right. I feel I did as well as anyone could under the circumstances."

One of Hynes' final acts was a last-minute promotion put through some time Wednesday.

The promotion elevated Joseph F. Coughlin, Perham st., West Roxbury, from deputy sealer of weights and measures to the post of chief deputy with his salary increased from $2900 to $3200 yearly.

On the same day, he ordered an $800 a year salary increase for his brother, Joseph R. Hynes, in the $2200 post in the transit department to which he had been transferred Nov. 17 from the city auditor's office.

As the welcoming throng departed, the mayor plunged immediately into city business, bidding with Deputy Auditor Daniel J. Falvey in a preliminary discussion of the city budget for 1948.

After this conference the Mayor summoned various department heads and conferred with them individually, apparently urging all possible economies in preparing their budget estimates for the coming year.

Gen. Le Clerc Dies In Plane Crash

PARIS, Nov. 28 (AP)—The air ministry announced tonight that Gen. Le Clerc, France's famous armored warfare leader, was killed in an airplane crash in the Sahara desert.

The plane crashed 20 miles from Colomb-Bechar, 200 miles south of Oran and near the Algeria-Morocco border. It was in Africa that Le Clerc first gained fame in the war against Germany and Italy.

It was understood 12 persons were aboard the plane and that all burned to death.

LeClerc, lately inspector general of French North African forces, headed a French division in the U. S. Third Army's drive against the Germans and led French forces into Strasbourg and Paris. His real name is Count Philippe De Hauteclocque—the LeClerc being a nomme de guerre.

Guilty of Using Brass Knuckles on Cabby

John S. Bryon, 22, Williams st., Roxbury, was found guilty by Municipal Judge Charles L. Carr today of assaulting George Kamenides, Washington st., Dedham cab driver, with a set of brass knuckles.

Found guilty also of carrying a weapon, Bryon was given two concurrent indeterminate reformatory sentences and was held in $5000 when he appealed. The assault occurred in Claremont pk., South End, after Bryon and a girl companion had been driven around in Kamenides' cab for almost an hour.

Spurned by M. D., Dies of Injuries

Mrs. Christine Rice, 55, Rutland sq., South End, injured a week ago in a fall down a stairway and without medical attention since then, was found dead in her home today.

Beside her in bed was her husband, James, who had been similarly injured three weeks ago and confined to bed since that time. Discovery of her death was made by Fred Newman, a handyman at the building, who has been visiting the couple each day and bringing food to them.

Rice told police that he had been treated by a doctor for his injury but that the doctor refused to return to treat his wife because he had not paid the first bill.

He showed a bankbook containing $4800 in deposits and explained he had been unable to go to the bank and withdraw the money because of his injury.

He said he had spoken to his wife last night but that she had said nothing today. He thought she was sleeping and did not realize she was dead until Newman came in and called his attention to her appearance.

Dartmouth Dean

Found Shot to Death

HANOVER, N. H., Nov. 28 (AP)

—Earl Gordon Bill, 63, first dean of the faculty at Dartmouth College and a Canadian draft official in World War I, was found dead today from a bullet wound.

College officials said Dr. Bill, dean emeritus, suffered a nervous breakdown in 1946 and had been inactive in college affairs since that time.

Don't waste time; germs can multiply to complicate a cold
Listerine Antiseptic kills throat surface germs by millions.

Act fast when a cold starts to get you in its grip. Go after throat surface germs before they go after you. Gargle full-strength Listerine Antiseptic, rightaway. Actual tests showed reductions of bacteria on mouth and throat surfaces ranging up to 96.7% fifteen minutes after the Listerine Antiseptic gargle, and up to 80% one hour later. What's more, in tests over a 12-year period, those who gargled Listerine Antiseptic twice a day had fewer colds, and usually had milder colds, and fewer sore throats, than those who did not gargle Listerine Antiseptic.

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 28 (AP)—Coyacan police headquarters said detectives had been instructed to pick up artist Diego Rivera for questioning in connection with a shot fired at a bus blocking a suburban street.

Police investigator Alberto Guzman Polo said a man cursed the driver of the bus and then fired one shot.

The bus driver, Francisco Ferrera Cecilia, said the man "acted as if he thought he owned the street." After an exchange of words the man fired, but the bullet failed to penetrate the side of the bus.

The man fled in his car, the police investigator said.

'Silent Guests' Net $20,000 In Food Gifts

More than $20,000 has been received by the Silent Guest Committee in Plymouth for food packages which will be distributed to hungry Europeans by CARE, the consolidated relief agency, it was disclosed today at the committee's headquarters in historic Pilgrim Hall.

The donors sent from a dollar to $200, their contributions representing the figurative equivalent of what they would have spent for an actual guest at their tables. Thanksgiving any occasion.

It appeared that money gifts from 3500 persons in many parts of the country will have been received for by tonight.

Because of the growing volume of mail, the committee has set up working headquarters at the Plymouth National Bank, where thank-you letters are sent out.

In hundreds of homes where families had contributed to the "silent guest" plan and given food or the cash equivalent in drives sponsored by all religious faiths, Thanksgiving Day was marked by seats set apart for the unfortunate victims of war-torn nations.

At special Thanksgiving services in the churches, appeals were renewed for food and clothing for the undernourished and unsheltered victims in Europe and elsewhere, in accordance with President Truman's holiday proclamation.

Throughout the city, veterans' groups, civic and charitable organizations, gave generous expression to the true meaning of Thanksgiving. Seamen of all nations were guests at a dinner at the Boston Seaman's Friend Society in Hanover st. The Volunteers of America provided Thanksgiving baskets for thousands of needy families, and served thousands of dinners to unemployed men. The Salvation Army served

66 Scientists Laud Nutrition Values in Beef, Lamb Stew

By MARTHA LEE, Household Editor

STEWES, BOTH BEEF AND LAMB, have been studied recently by nutrition scientists. Because the B-vitamins in meat are one of its important nutritive offerings, and because they may suffer loss in cooking, these scientists wanted to find out which method of making stew was easiest on these vitamins. They made stew by a dozen different methods, tested each batch and came up with answers to the following questions:

1—Does browning the meat in fat before cooking in water cause loss of vitamins?

Answer: Browning causes a very slight loss of three B-vitamins. But it gives more flavor and appetizing brown color to the stew, so its advantages may outweigh the small loss in nutritive value.

2—This is better for vitamin-saving—long slow cooking at low heat or fast cooking in the high heat of the pressure cooker?

Answer: The two methods rate about the same.

3—Does the amount of water used in cooking affect the vitamin content of the stew?

Answer: The more water used, the more vitamins from the meat go into the broth. If all the broth is served with the meat, there is no loss. But care should be taken not to use so much water that there is too much broth and some is discarded. Obviously, broth has more meat flavor and makes better gravy for the stew if a small rather than a large amount of water is used.

Stews are good choices among meat dishes these days. They are thrifty and they save critical food. The lower grades of beef—utility and commercial—from grass-fed rather than grain-fed cattle make good stew. Moreover, in stew a little meat can go a long way in serving the family. This helps the family budget and also helps indirectly to save grain needed in Europe.

BEEF STEW

2 lbs. beef chuck
Lard or drippings
1 tbsp. sugar 1 tbsp. salt
Pepper 4 carrots
6 small white onions
6 medium-sized potatoes, skin

1 small bunch celery
2 tbsp. minced parsley
Have the meat cut into 1-inch cubes. Brown in hot fat. Season. Add hot water, cover and simmer gently for 2½ hours or until meat is tender. Have the carrots cut in lengthwise pieces unless they are small enough to leave whole. Cut celery into 4-inch sticks and add 30 minutes before serving. Serve on a hot platter, the meat in the center and the vegetables attractively arranged around it. Sprinkle with minced parsley. Thicken the liquid for gravy and serve separately.

LAMB STEW

2 lbs. lean raw lamb
2 tbsp. butter, margarine or other fat
½ cup sliced onion
3 cups diced yellow turnip
1 green pepper, chopped
1 qt. water Flour
Salt and pepper

Breast, shoulder, neck, flank and trimmings are all good for lamb stew. Wipe the meat with a damp cloth, cut into small pieces and roll in flour. Melt the butter in a skillet, add the onion, cook until it turns yellow and add the meat. When the meat and onion have browned delicately, transfer them to a kettle and add the water, after first pouring it into the skillet so as to get full benefit of the browned fat. Cover and simmer for 1 hour. Then add the turnip, green pepper and seasonings and cook 20 minutes longer. If the stew is not thick enough, add 1 tablespoon of flour mixed with 2 tablespoons of cold water and cook for several minutes longer, stirring constantly. Finish piping hot with browned potatoes and garnished with parsley.

FASHION-PINK spring will find favor in pink gabardine... the strongest selling fabric for spring suits, according to buyer reports. And it is doubly important when it is executed in the ballerina silhouette. This Joselli-designed two-piece ensemble both fashion features and further enhances the model with a double row of shiny buttons, a coachman-type collar and hipline flaps on the jacket to accent a swing-and-sway skirt.—R. Advance Spring Makeup

By RUTH MUGGLEBEE
Beauty and Fashion Editor

WHILE YOU WERE GIVING UP THANKS yesterday as citizens with the right to "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" in a country eminently committed to the democratic way of life... we hope and trust you remembered, if only in a small way, to thank those cosmetic chemists of test-tube research who make it possible for American women to be the gracious-looking charmers they are.

The world looks to Uncle Sam's "land of the free and home of the brave" for the most beautiful women... and here it finds them... beautiful AND brainy. And with a voice! For no where on the globe has cosmetic science advanced to the high degree it has in Yankee-Doodle land.

Because women are "sick-to-death" of the dark, defined beauty look of yesteryear associated with dark, defined war years of the recent past... their clamoring for a bright, cherub-like prettiness reflective of an optimistic future filled with undaunted hope will be answered in the new spring makeup picture.

But why wait for spring. Why dally with facial clarity... as good as a new bonnet any day! It is said that by spring 85 percent of American women will look pink and white. We're all for looking pink and white right now because it is gentle, soft and an antidote for the drab, dreary winter days ahead.

LOTS OF PINK AHEAD

By spring there'll be lots and lots of pink in the facial picture... pinks running from pale to powerful, from powder bases to lipsticks. You'll be crowded with beauty and fashion ads and such wordage as feminine, fragile, ladylike, pretty and a whole host of others turned out from fertile brains will tell you in no uncertain terms that make-up's dramatization must come from a new lighter look.

By spring you'll be bored with such declamation! Right now it constitutes a welcome and healthy change... a ray of sunshine in the overall picture, beauty and fashion-wise. This new pink make-up... as subtle as a baby's coloring and just as gentle as an infant's skin... is applicable to virtually all women. Even the dark-skinned Latins could appear brighter, lovelier and more genteel in such a transformed color make-up.

Not the pale, wan, sickly

The New Styles Combat Cold

By EILEEN CALLAHAN

THE DESIGNERS have declared war on Winter. They have laid strategy against the bitter, numbing cold that makes women forget fashion as they huddle inside layers of bulky wraps.

Their strategy is beautifully effective. Sketched today is an example of it in a cold-weather costume designed by Eleanora Garnett. Three materials and two colors comprise it. Warm black wool is used for the skirt that lies flat over the hips and swings out to the moderate degree of flare suitable for street wear. The skirt is part of a svelte little dress. The bodice of the dress is made of green silk faille, a fabric that is more comfortable than wool under a fur jacket. The bodice has a simple, high, round neck and short sleeves. Completing the costume is a snug jacket of black Persian lamb. The jacket is fitted closely to the figure. It nips in at the waist and rounds out below the belt to extend a few inches over the hips.

INDIVIDUALITY and personal preferences are the determining factors of fashion... and certainly this applies to makeup. But for the first time in makeup history... there are changes visible to the naked eye. So it will be a pink spring, facially speaking... with lots and lots of pink in the new makeup picture... but why wait for spring? You can have it now for a more gentle, lovelier-looking you! Or so the model seems to imply!

pink... but the rosy glow of pink watermelon... fascinating, unusual. In the past, the only changes were little nuances of color that slipped us gently from season to season. Now, for the first time in makeup history, the change is visible to the naked eye.

This new point of makeup view is already for you... a noted beautician having sensed the changing times and met them. To act as foil for this clear, vivid pink coloring on your lips... there is also a foundation to give your skin the "finish" you desire... and face powder to harmonize for the first really changed look in years.

For the name of this advance spring makeup, phone the Beauty Dept., Liberty 2-4000, daily except Sunday, or write me care of the Boston American, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Await His Divorce

DEAR MISS FAIRFAX: I am 16 and have been going steady with a man for over a month. I love him very much and I know he loves me. He has never lied to me and he is as true and kind as any man could be. The trouble is that we can't take things too seriously for he was once married and hasn't a divorce yet. I can see very plainly that it was his wife's fault for their breaking up.

Kind Thought for Your Hostess

You'll gladden the heart of a hostess if, during her party (perhaps quite early in the party) you'll say something high-heartedly enthusiastic about her party... "What a wonderful party, such charming guests, and everyone having such a good time. What a perfect hostess you are, Anna!" Sweet assurance to her that everything is going successfully. —MRS. BEECKMAN.

I would like you to tell me if you think it is right for me to keep company with this man until he gets a divorce, as long as we don't take things too seriously. He is trying to get a divorce now. "WORRIED." Dear "Worried": I can't say I think it is a good idea for a 16-year-old girl to be associated with a married man, whether he is separated from his wife or not. This is a type of situation that has proved disastrous for many young girls.

It is perfectly possible that your friend may be a man of good character, that he may not have been to blame for the failure of his marriage, and that he is sincerely planning to get his divorce and eventually marry you. But I think that you are far too young to be thinking about marriage yet, especially under circumstances of this kind. It seems to me the wise thing to do would be to tell this man that it would be better for you not to see each other until he has his divorce. When he gets it, it will be time enough to make any further decisions. Copyright, 1947, King Features Synd., Inc.

Smart Set Dance Honors Wendy Howes

By BETTY ALDEN

THE DANCE Mr. and Mrs. Ernest G. Howes, Jr., are giving at the Copley Plaza this evening in honor of their debutante daughter, Wendy, is preceded by a dinner party at which Wendy's brother, E. Grant Howes 3d, is host.

The State Suite is decorated for the party with colorful chrysanthemums and the dinner tables with arrangements of blue delphinium, pale yellow and pink snapdragon. Wendy is wearing a dream of a gown, a Hattie Carnegie model of white Alencon lace with a design of blue and white jewels applied on the full skirt. It has an off shoulder neckline and tight bodice. Mrs. Howes is wearing shell pink tulle with coral and blue paillettes in a pointed design on the full skirt and a tulle fichu scarf.

Jane Cox

Among the ushers' dinner guests will be Frances Adams, Jane Cox, Wendy Low Grey, Laura Cobb, Virginia Biddle, Barbara Collins, Marjorie Dean, Gioia Sears Griess, Mary Gay Hall, Mimi Gherardi, Joan Harmon, Holly Salt, Ann O'Day, Jane Hamilton, Carol Hodgdon, Dorothy Hooper, Ann Learned, Amy Maloon, Marguerite Warren, Charlotte Peabody, Barbara Meinke, and Claire Porter.

Members of the stag line who will keep the girls dancing into the wee small hours to the tunes of Harry Marshard will include Lawrence Benedict, Frederick Myers, Peter Bowman, Edwin George and David Cobb, Hart Fessenden, Henry T. Woodland, Dwight Evans, Gifford Dean, Charles Fleischmann, James Gilman, Gale Mahony, James Metcalf, Arthur B. Nichols, Jr., Carlton Rand, David and Douglas Wells, William Rice, Francis Scully, Richard Sears, 3d, Philip Suter, Richard Southgate, Robert Steinert, Jr., Edwin Curtis and Grant Barker, cousin of the debutante.

DAN CUPID was such a busy little man yesterday it is doubtful if there was so much as a wing left by the time he got around to his Thanksgiving feast.

One of the outstanding weddings was that of Molly Johnson van Wyck and Carlisle Tuttle Spencer at Ascension Memorial Church, Ipswich. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin S. van Wyck of Ipswich, and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Spencer, Jr., of Beacon st. and Marion.

BUTTE, Mont., Nov. 28 (AP)—A woman handed the county treasurer 17 cents in paying property tax for the first half of the year on a parcel of unimproved farm land.

The second half payment will be easier, she said, because it will be only 16 cents.

PORT ELIZABETH, South Africa, Nov. 28 (AP)—The American steamship Earham Victory docked here carrying 49 crew members rescued from the South African Liberty ship President Reitz which ran aground near Cape St. Francis yesterday.

at the church. Rev. C. Daniel Boone officiated at the 4:30 ceremony and the reception was at the bride's home. Given in marriage by her father, she wore ivory satin trimmed with Chantilly lace. Her veil fell from a fluted swirl of heirloom lace and orange blossoms. She carried white orchids and gardenias.

Katherine van Wyck, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Patricia Spencer, the groom's sister, who is a former president of the Junior League, and Mrs. Harry Littlejohn of Tuckahoe, N. Y. They wore moss green satin gowns with autumn flowers. Mrs. Van Wyck wore surf green crepe draped in Grecian folds and Mrs. Spencer brown crepe with taupe accents.

The groom's father was best man and the ushers were Charles E. Spencer 3d of Naugatuck, Ct., W. Homer White of Essex, J. Tower Thompson and Roger V. Scudder of North Andover.

After Jan. 1 the bride and groom will be at home in Houston, Texas. The groom is a Dartmouth '45 graduate.

ANOTHER PROMINENT Thanksgiving Day wedding was that of Mrs. Virginia McNeill Rauth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold McNeil of Chestnut Hill, to Richard Langworthy Gardner, son of Prof. and Mrs. Harry Wentworth Gardner of Newton.

The ceremony was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. McNeil with Rev. William Henry Denny officiating. A wedding breakfast followed at The Country Club for members of the immediate families. Mrs. Francis Keyes of Simsbury, Ct., was her sister's matron of honor.

Swedish Star's Portrayal Highlights 'Frieda' Film

"Frieda," British war-made film now tenanted the Exeter Street Theater screen, takes up the question of war guilt, a problem that continues to baffle many of the world's leading statesmen and thinkers, with more sincerity than success.

Swedish actress Mai Zetterling, who is strikingly reminiscent of the young Garbo, and supporting players David Farrar, Flora Robson, Glynis Johns and Barbara Everest are immensely persuasive. The picture they help to create of life in a small English village just prior to and just after World War II is revealing and absorbing.

In the beginning, it seemed the story might get somewhere but it is elemental, Watson, and terminates on a highly melodramatic, completely unresolved note.

A young German girl, who has saved the life of a British flier after he had been shot down in Poland, accompanies him to his English home after they have gone through a marriage ceremony to entitle the girl to an English passport.

Understandably, her presence in the town which has lost so many of its young men in the war is resented. It is made clear that she loathes the Nazis and everything they stand for. Her brother, who arrives in the uniform of the Polish Army, is secretly a fanatical Hitlerite who sees in his sister's forthcoming marriage a means of restoring the Nazis to power.

It is all too black and white and meanders to an inconclusive finale, Miss Zetterling's performance and not "Frieda" impresses.

Shirley Temple In Dramatic Role

A soupcon of horse-sense and there wouldn't have been any story, but the almost complete lack of it marks "That Hagen Girl" as satisfying film fare for Paramount and Fenway "soap opera" addicts.

Shirley Temple, in her first straight dramatic role, turns in a genuinely grown-up performance as a smalltown girl whose teens are made unhappy because of the shocking lack of maturity on the part of the adults involved.

In a mystery-building introduction (with a nod . . . and certainly an apology . . . to Alfred Hitchcock) three of the town's citizens are shown arriving home from Chicago on the same train.

A pleasant-faced, modestly-attired woman, cradling an infant in her arms, is met by her heavy, solemn-faced husband, upon whom she casts a silent, questioning glance. She wants to get the baby home, she says, "we'll talk later."

Even more hush-hush is the station conduct of the town's wealthiest resident who virtually sneaks his ailing daughter into a waiting limousine with the aid of his cowering minions.

The sick girl's sister, played by Ronald Reagan, is barred from seeing her; it is subsequently learned she has become insane and brace of stock character village gossips spread the fabrication that the baby Mrs. Hagen brought back from Chicago is the illegitimate offspring of the rich girl and the young lawyer.

Of course, it is accepted practice to tell a child as early as possible he or she is adopted. It insures a sense of security adoption agencies have learned. Such a realistic, humane approach is blithely dodged in "That Hagen Girl," whose tortured young teenager is blandly refused the facts of her parentage by those who are supposed to love and protect her.

Fancy the shock when the man who tardily tells her he isn't her father marries her.

N. Y. Area Population Jumps Million Since 1940

NEW YORK, Nov. 23 (AP)—The population of the New York-New Jersey-Connecticut metropolitan region was estimated today by the Regional Plan Assn., at 13,580,000, an increase of more than a million over 1940.

Frederick P. Clark, the association's planning director, said the rate of growth indicated the association's estimate of 13,800,000 population in 1950 appeared certain of attainment.

Atomic Science Life-Saving Talled
 CHICAGO, Nov. 28 (AP)—Atomic science already has saved more lives than were lost in the atom bomb explosions at Hiroshima and Nagasaki, an article in Hygieia, health magazine of the American Medical Ass'n, said today.
 Cecil Forbes Hanna of Walla Walla, Wash., said in the article that the lives have been saved by radioactive tracers used in medicine to combat various diseases and disorders.
 "With approximately 100 isotopes of the various elements produced in the chain-reacting uranium piles at Oak Ridge now available for research at low cost and in relatively large quantities, the previous rate in atomic medicine should be greatly accelerated," he said.

74 BC-HC Sellout; New Rules Will Protect Boxers

By JACK CONWAY

BOSTON COLLEGE still remains a six point favorite to win from Holy Cross in the 44th game of their traditional series which will be played before 42,000 persons at Braves Field tomorrow afternoon. While the Eagles have met with three reverses in their eight games played so far this season, the Tennessee defeat was the only one in which the club looked poorly.

The setbacks by LSU and Wake Forest were each by only a point. Better fortune in kicking the goal after touchdown would have given BC at least a tie in these contests.

Captain Angelo Nicketakis, 197-pound right end, will lead the Eagles, while Co-Captains Ray Ball of Clinton and Bob Sullivan of Andover will try to lead the Crusaders to victory.

The Crusaders always look at their best in their clashes with BC. Denny Myers has found this out in the years he has coached at Boston College. In 1941, the Eagles edged Holy Cross, 14 to 13, while in 1942 Holy Cross crushed BC, 55-12. A year ago, back from Navy service, Myers' BC team was beaten by Holy Cross, 13-6.

The game will mark "Ox" DaGrosa's farewell to college football as a head coach. DaGrosa's resignation at Holy Cross will go into effect after the clash with BC.

There is intense interest in the contest. Every seat for the game has been sold for almost four weeks.

Myers and DaGrosa are both rooting for a dry field. Last Saturday when BC won from St. Mary's the players had to contend with a slippery field.

The 4100 undergraduates at the Heights will give the Eagles what moral support they may need to stop the Crusaders.

The HC students are also enthusiastic, and they would like to see their team end its season with a win.

New Rules Will Safeguard Boxers

THE NEW RULES proposed by the Boxing Commission are in line with the recommendations I made a year ago to safeguard the health of boxers in this state and to give the public a better run for its money. Boxers will be carefully examined before being permitted to enter the ring, while those mitt wielders who suffer knockouts will have to undergo special examinations before they are permitted to box again.

The plan to have a first aid station at every boxing show is a good one. It will assure the doctors of adequate places to perform their duties and the boxers the type of treatment they require.

Inspectors for the commission will also demand clean dressing rooms for the boxers. Every medical and sanitary precaution will be put into effect.

Matchmakers and trainers will be licensed. This will give the commission the authority it needs to carry out properly its many duties.

The other rule suggestions made by the commission have merit, and they will help put boxing on a firmer standing in this state.

Boxing Talent Urgently Needed Here

THERE IS NEED for new boxing talent. This is why the task of being a matchmaker is so difficult. The Zaneli-Priest bout staged by the Goodwin Club was the last of the local nationals. There is no bout in sight between New England boxers which could sell out the Garden.

If young boxers are given opportunities in the small clubs, some of them in time will develop into stars and gain ring followings. Chairman John Stokes stated that the Boxing Commission recognizes the fact the ring game is popular, and that the suggested changes in the boxing law and in the rules governing the sport were made for the purpose of eliminating evils and in this way protecting the boxers as well as the public.

BC-HC Rated Poor Bet

By BILL GRIMES

Concerning the 44th Boston College-Holy Cross classic, which will be staged tomorrow at Braves Field, it is unwise to wager on the outcome, regardless of odds. Why? Because the only sure-fire bets are that the demand for tickets will exceed the supply and that the "buck" will land right in the lap of the losing coach.

Early this week, John "Ox" DaGrosa resigned as head coach at Holy Cross, effective immediately after tomorrow's game. Three weeks ago, Denny Myers signed a four-year contest at Boston College. But, DaGrosa, who is "out" or just as much concerned over the outcome as Myers, who is sitting on a long-term agreement.

In football, it is permissible for professors (coaches) to submit answers during examinations (games) when some problem stumps their teams. That piece of legislation took the players "out of the middle" and, in this case, put Denny Myers and John DaGrosa on the "spot" and definitely at the mercy of the "second guessers."

Boston College and Holy Cross are traditional rivals. The football competition has been so keen and bitter over the years that it has become a custom to demand the scalp of the losing coach.

It's poor judgment to attempt to pick a winner of any B. C.-H. C. game on the respective records. So, it's unfair to make either club a favorite.

The Crusaders are winding up a bad season. They have not come up to expectations. But, in all probability, they'll display a better brand of football tomorrow than they have in the years of this fall. With the possible exception of Jim Deffley, Holy Cross is in almost perfect physical condition.

In all probability, Holy Cross' failure to produce more than four victories was due to the fact that it tried to operate from two of defenses, the "T" and the "Single Wing." The Crusaders have better blockers when they run from the "Single Wing" and some of their operatives look mediocre on "T" formation plays.

Boston College will not be at top strength. Ernie Staunter is a questionable starter. He was hospitalized after the Wake Forest game with a contused kidney. If he is permitted to play, Staunter cannot be expected to stand up under the heavy going after a three week lay off from any contact work. And, it is well to remember that Ernie Staunter is a very important cog in the B. C. line. Then, too, Boston College hasn't any assurance that Ed Clabby, its ace passer and field general, will be at his peak.

Granted that the Eagles are strong and fairly deep in material, they cannot function at their best, especially against Holy Cross, with some crimples. Early this fall, Dick Harlow stated that he hoped, for Denny Myers' sake, that nothing would happen to Ed Clabby. Well, it did, a thigh injury. Little Steve Stuka filled in for the ailing Clabby and did an excellent job.

B. C. GRID RALLY

A spirited pre-game rally and celebration in preparation for the Holy Cross game tomorrow, will be held by Boston College undergraduates tonight. The rally will start at the college's new auditorium at the Heights where Fr. George Kerr, All-America guard on the BC Cotton Bowl eleven, is to be one of the featured speakers.

ROWAN IN MIDDLE . . . Army's leading ground-gainer looks on as guard Joe Steffy, captain, pours milk for guard Joe Henry. Steffy is from dear old Chattanooga, Ga., Henry from Clearfield, Pa., and Rowan from Memphis.

Army Rip Rowan's Carrying Better Than Blanchard's

WEST POINT, N. Y., Nov. 28 (AP)—Army football followers have been so busy shedding tears over the graduation of Doc Blanchard and Glenn Davis that few realize that their current fullback, Elwyn (Rip) Rowan, can produce statistics showing he is one of the country's best.

'Ox' Puts Diminick On N. E. 3d Team

WORCESTER, Nov. 28 (INS)—John "Ox" DaGrosa, the retiring head football coach of Holy Cross, on the eve of the traditional game with Boston College gave today to International News Service his selections for All-New England grid honors.

From his own Holy Cross team he named two backs and a lineman, and he selected two Boston College linemen for his first eleven. Joe Diminick, Eagles' star back, rated only the third team with DaGrosa:

His selections:

FIRST TEAM: Ends—Spinney, B. C.; Armstrong, Dartmouth. Tackles—Fisher, H. C.; Stanner, B. C. Guards—Frasca, Yale; Jaculis, Boston. Center—Schreyer, Dartmouth. Quarterback—Fursy, Yale. Halfback—Nadler, Yale. Fullback—Kissell, H. C. SECOND TEAM: Ends—Fick, Brown. Boston. Tackles—Kissell, H. C.; Prechtl, Yale. Guards—Relly, H. C.; Young, Dartmouth. Center—Deffley, H. C. Quarterback—Ball, H. C. Halfback—Cannon, Harvard; Bonanno, New Hampshire St. Fullback—Jackson, Yale. THIRD TEAM: Ends—Forsythe, Harvard and Halliday, H. C. Fullback—Blanchard, Bates.

Johnny Kelley Second In Berwick Marathon

BERWICK, Pa., Nov. 28 (AP)—For the second consecutive year sophomore Brown Ross of Villanova won the Berwick Marathon. For time for the nine-mile run was 48 minutes and 37 seconds.

Ross was 50 yards in front of Johnny Kelley, Boston, four-time victor in the event. John St. Clair, Philadelphia, was third; Robert Rankin, Galt (Canada) Track Club, fourth, and Walter Pedorick, Hamilton (Canada) Olympic Club, fifth.

DiMaggio Joins Foxy With 3 MVP Awards

NEW YORK, Nov. 28 (AP) — Joe DiMaggio, star centerfielder of the world champion Yankees, today joined Jimmy Foxx, former great slugger of the Athletics and Red Sox as the only three-time winners when he was named the most valuable player of the American League for 1947.

In the closest race in the history of the award, DiMaggio compiled a total of 202 points in the vote of the 24-man committee of the Baseball Writers Ass'n of America to nose out Ted Williams of the Red Sox by one point.

Williams, who gained the triple crown by leading the league in batting (.343), runs batted in (114) and home runs (32) as well as in runs scored, total bases and bases on balls, polled 201 votes to gain the runner-up spot.

It marked the second time he finished second to DiMaggio and the third time he was runner-up to a Yankee player.

The Red Sox slugging outfielder, who won the award hands down last year with 224 votes, finished second to DiMaggio in 1941 and to Joe Gordon in 1942. DiMaggio also won in 1939. Foxx gained the honor in 1932 and '33 with the Athletics and in 1938 with the Red Sox.

The balloting for third place also was decided by one point.

MVP VOTING

NEW YORK, Nov. 28 (INS) — The leading point scorers in the American League most valuable player award were:

DiMag Rated No. 1 by Mack And Boudreau

By HUCK FINNEGAN

Boston is up in arms because Ted Williams of the Red Sox finished second to Joe DiMaggio in the American League Most Valuable Player poll.

Joe Cronin registered a blatant beef from Washington enroute to Miami.

Johnny Pesky and Eddie Pellagrini, partner-salesmen during the winter, couldn't understand why Williams wasn't voted No. 1, couldn't understand why Williams got only three votes for first place when Joe Page got seven and a guy like Eddie Joost got two.

On the surface, they had reasons to be perturbed. Williams won the triple batting crown for the second time—batting, home runs and RBI—equaling Lou Gehrig's record.

Williams hit .343 to DiMaggio's .315. Williams had 32 home runs to DiMaggio's 20. Williams had 114 RBI, despite his 161 walks, to DiMaggio's 97.

But, and this is a big BUT, the Yanks won the pennant, the Red Sox finished third. And the man most responsible for the Yanks winning the pennant was Joe DiMaggio.

Go back to March. Yanks looked pitiful in training. DiMaggio had just undergone an operation on his heel which required 42 stitches.

"He won't play until June 1, and then he'll just be starting spring training," said one and sundry.

The Yanks were spiritless without him. Writers didn't give them a chance for the pennant.

Red Sox opened the A's home season. A's had opened in New York. Said the A's, "We should have swept the series from the Yanks. They looked like a second division club. They're not going anywhere this year."

On or about April 26, Joe DiMaggio appeared in uniform. He had his injured appendage encased in a boot that reached high above his ankle.

Johnny Murphy, with the Yanks in the south but with the Red Sox in the north, thought DiMaggio would ruin himself.

He can't possibly play," said the old relief pitcher. "He'll be out for the season if he tries to run on it so quickly. The heel was green when I saw it last. I just hope he doesn't lose his leg."

"Gotta play myself into shape," commented DiMaggio, and he went into the lineup.

Yanks perked up immediately. Instead of playing second division ball they jumped right into contention.

"The team that gets hot first will win this race," said Lou Boudreau on the Sox first trip west. The clubs were well bunched then.

On the Sox second trip west, the Yanks were in the midst of their 19-game winning streak despite the loss of their home run king, Charlie Keller.

"The Yanks will win the pennant," commented Boudreau, "and the man they can thank for it is DiMaggio. He wasn't supposed to return to the game until June 1, but here it is June and they've got the pennant practically clinched."

Yanks streaked to a 10½ game lead. They held it while the Sox stumbled. Sox pitchers weren't pitching, and Williams was trudging along at a .291 pace.

Williams started to hit when the Sox were in second place 11½ games behind the Yanks. While he was on the rampage, the Yanks not only widened their lead but the Sox slipped from second to third, where they finished.

"My, oh my, what a difference DiMaggio has made in the Yanks," exclaimed Connie Mack in June. "I must revise my pennant estimate. Instead of the Red Sox, I switch to the Yanks."

The most valuable player award is given not necessarily to the man with the best batting achievement.

76B's-Leafs Battle for 2d

By the Associated Press

With the Montreal Canadiens surging to within two points of second place—where the Toronto Maple Leafs and the Boston Bruins are deadlocked behind the front-running Detroit Red Wings—the National Hockey League standings assumed a more normal appearance today.

Detroit beat the Bruins 4-1 last night and extended the Wings' first-place margin to three points. The championship Toronto Maple Leafs remained tied with Boston for second-place after being shut out, 2-0, by the Canadiens at Montreal. These teams meet in Boston Sunday.

It was a shattered Boston team that skated on the Detroit ice before a crowd of 12,856. Veteran Center Milt Schmidt suffered an attack of intestinal flu just before the game and defenseman Jack Crawford was still out with a bruised instep. Altogether Boston dressed only 13 men.

Ted Lindsay scored Detroit's first goal in the first period and Joe Carveth tied it up for the Bruins when the second frame was only two minutes old. But Jerry Couture and Pat Lundy both scored to give Detroit a 3-1 edge going into the final period, and Pete Horeck added another for good measure.

November Skiing Good; Rarity in New England

By "TAP" GOODENOUGH

Thanks to a heavy deposit of snow in the northern sections of New Hampshire, Vermont and Maine, the New England skiing season has started to roll with the speed of a racehorse breaking from the barrier. As a matter of fact, good skiing in November is rare in this region, usually associated only with the western spots.

First major development to operate in high gear was the vast Pico Peak area, outside Rutland, Vt., where Janet Mead reports that hundreds of earlybird skiers stormed her slopes yesterday, finding superb sport, after schussing knee-deep in 14 inches of powder.

The Alpine Lift whirled merrily, transporting the crowds, many of whom found their legs a bit wobbly on the slippery slats after several months away from 'em. The lift will run every week-end, Janet announced, commencing on a daily schedule before mid-December.

The early snow, incidentally, afforded the chance for practice by Janet's 15-year-old daughter, Andrea, youngest member of the U. S. Olympic ski squad, which sails for Switzerland, Dec. 8.

At mighty Mt. Mansfield, in Smuggler's Notch, near Stowe, Vt., George Morrell, owner of The Lodge, told us that enthusiasts were numerous, cutting Christies through 17 inches of powder. The famous Toll Road is skiable its entire length.

SKI SHOTS: The rope tow that services the valley practice slope, at Cannon Mountain, Franconia, N. H., will run tomorrow and Sunday. The slope is covered with deep powder, the skiing said to be good. The tramway will not be in motion until later.

The more rugged skiers tackled Pinkham Notch, N. H., on the holiday, where both the steep Sherburne and Wildcat trails were in fine shape. . . skiing was also good on Mt. Moosilauke; Warren, N. H.

Snow Valley, at Manchester, Vt., has 13 inches of powder, but the towns and lifts are not ruining yet.

CHICAGO, Nov. 28 (AP)—Basketball's annual coming-out party, matching the College All-Stars and the Indianapolis Kautskys of the National League, will be on display tonight before an expected crowd of 20,000 at Chicago Stadium.

The eighth annual game, sponsored by the Chicago Herald-American, will be preceded by a regular league contest between the Chicago Stags and the Philadelphia Warriors of the Basketball Association of America.

Haverhill Boxer On Amateur Card

Welterweight and middleweight classes in the amateur boxing program have started to fill up with two more entries for each division on the fight card at Mechanics Building tomorrow night under the sponsorship of the South End A. C.

In the 147-pound class, Leroy Chapman, Haverhill, and Ray Tynes, Framingham, have entered while in the 160-pound class, Dick Galvin, Jamaica Plain, and Frank O'Neil, Cambridge, have filed.

Yanks 'Up' For 'Skins

It's little wonder that Maurice J. "Clipper" Smith, head coach of the Boston Yanks, has just about thrown up his hands at trying to set up defenses to stop the passing of "The Arm," better known as Sammy Baugh. Instead of attempting to bottle Sammy's pitching, the Yanks have gone all out on offensive concentration for their windup home game with the Washington Redskins at Fenway Park, Sunday.

Baugh can't be stopped. His 11-year record with the Washington Redskins provides many amazing figures. From the start of the 1937 season through last Sunday, Slingin' Sammy has thrown 1989 passes and has completed 1143 of them for a lifetime N. F. L. average of better than .580. These completions have amassed a total of 14,418 yards and 124 touchdowns.

Instead of having his best years behind him, Sammy is now enjoying the greatest season of his career. Going into the game with the Yanks Sunday, Sammy is leading both divisions in passing with 151 completions in 250 pitches for 2159 yards and 21 touchdowns. His passing average is 60.4 which outranks Sid Luckman, his nearest competitor, by 5.4 points.

So, chances are that the Yanks will see Sammy at his best for he reached his season's peak against the powerful Cardinals last Sunday by completing 25 out of 33 passes for six touchdowns.

Sammy has no particular target—this year he has hit no less than 17 different receivers... Bob Nussbaumer has grabbed 33 of Baugh's pitches to the Bob Jansante of Pittsburgh for Eastern Division leadership in total number caught... Eddie Saenz, the 168-pound speedster, is certain to stack up in quite a duel with Boston's Frank Seno—both are running very even in punt returns and kick-off returns... either is a threat to go all the way on a returned kick.

H. H. ADOPTS POLICY TO AID DEER HUNTERS

CONCORD, N. H., Nov. 28 (AP)—New Hampshire's fish and game department adopted a policy of advertising localities where the heaviest concentrations of deer may be found—in an effort to reduce their numbers and prevent damage to farm lands.

The hunting season opens in central and southern counties of the State Monday, and the department listed 18 towns and one city in those counties where the best deer shooting may be found.

Damages by deer must be paid for by the State.

The department listed these good hunting areas by counties: Merrimack—Concord, Hopkinton, Canterbury, Boscawen, Salisbury, Warner and Allentown; Kelnap—Barnstead and Alton; Cheshire—Dublin; Hillsborough—Hollis, Winton and Peterborough; Rockingham—Derry, Deerfield and Salem; Strafford—Farmington, Strafford and New Durham.

Medford Awaits Postseason Bowl Bid

By MIKE GILLOOLY

Now that the Class championships have been settled in the ratings system—although nobody on the North Shore will ever believe that it wouldn't be Classical by three touchdowns against one for Medford if they ever met—the open season on bowl bids will keep schoolboy football followers alert for another two weeks.

By divisions, the kings of their groups are Medford, in

A; Brookline (and it's almost getting monotonous) in B; Durfee of Fall River in C and Falmouth in D.

Coach Tom O'Connor's Mustangs will now keep in shape; watch their calories; relax a bit from their winning efforts and hope and pray that the school officials come through with a trip to the South. They have already voted to accept a bid that might be forthcoming from the warmer climates and negotiations are under way—in spite of any and all denials that may be circulated.

And before going any further, Medford certainly deserves a vote of praise for the handsome way that they came through their schedule. Coach O'Connor had neither the personnel, nor the depth. But the team had the spirit to fight its way through. It was a team championship as well as a personal triumph for the Navy veteran who will be stepping from the coaching ranks to devote his time to directing the school's entire athletic program.

No single member of the Mustangs has been an especial standout. They've fully signified the meaning of the word "team."

Runner-up Classical, a team that insists on winning its ball games by the simplest of methods (merely scoring more points than the opposition) played its typical Thanksgiving Day game in topping Lynn English. They showed utter disdain as English ran up a 19-7 edge before half-time. They were equally nonchalant as George Bullard made it 19-14 and then 32-19 on a pair of runs that totaled 115 yards.

It was as assured as the fact that the cold weather is here. Harry Agganis pitched as he pleased; sent Bullard off the ends and through the center of the line for amazing yardage. And when the attack would falter, Agganis would either jump, pass or lateral out to Bullard for a first down. There was nothing English could do to stop the drives.

Bowl sponsors know that they'll be assured of offensive thrills in any Classical contest.

Brookline never allowed room for doubt in the B title chase, in rolling up a 46-14 margin over Newton. Three years in a row the crown has rested on Coach

GEORGE BULLARD
Scored 4 Lynn Classical TD's.

Harry Downes' Wealthy Towners for a new record although this year's eleven dropped a decision to Weymouth and was held to a deadlock by Quincy. Charlie Haskell and Tony Misho cemented the Brookline victory beyond question.

In C, North Quincy bit off too much against Quincy with the result that Luke Urban's Durfee group romped home at the expense of New Bedford. In D, Falmouth needed to win to retain leadership and the Cape boys did just that (13-7) against Barnstable.

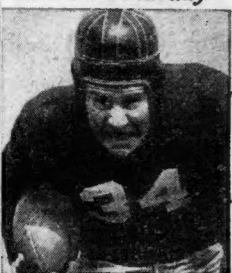

BOXING RESULTS

FALL RIVER—Eddie Moniz, 145, Fall River, defeated Leo Brito, 141, Providence (10); Bob Conway, 130½, Manchester, 10, defeated Dick Callahan, 137½, Boston (11).

PHILADELPHIA—Honeychuckle Johnson, 146, Philadelphia, kayoed Humberto Zamora, 139, New York (1).

ATLANTIC CITY—Jesse Moroney, 133½, Harrisburg, Pa., outpointed Ray Spruiell, 135½, Kansas City (8).

Celtics Make Fifth Attempt To Win Here

By SAM BROGNA

Maybe the Boston Celtics should take the advice of their small faithful following and stay on the road, but they will make their fifth bid to annex home victory No. 1 of the campaign tonight at the Garden against the Washington Capitols.

After being snowed under 75-91 the other night on home soil by the Knickerbockers, they turned around the following p. m. to reverse the decision in New York. This 63-63 victory in the big city was the Celts' fourth straight road win. They now boast of a four and five slate and are still in a neck-and-neck race for second place in the Eastern Sector with the New Yorkers.

Tonight, they take on a team that made a runaway affair of their division last winter when they lost only one game in 30 at home. As the teams take the floor for their second meeting this winter, the Celts already hold one decision over the Caps.

Earlier this campaign, the locals turned back the Washington five 73-69. It was their first win of the year. Last winter, the Caps took their series with the Hub team, winning five of their six games.

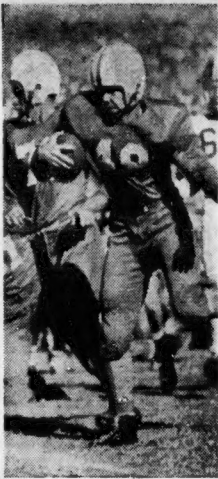

The Capitols are presently at the bottom of the Western division with a three and four slate after snapping a two-game string Wednesday night by drubbing St. Louis, 83-64.

Coached by Red Auerbach, former Georgetown mentor, the Caps bring them two of last year's All-League players, Capt. Bob Feerick and Bones McKinney. Feerick, runner-up to Joe Fulks for scoring honors, showed the best shot average in the loop by connecting for 40 per cent of his tries.

The Celts-Caps game is scheduled for 9 o'clock with the preliminary game between St. Sebastian's Country Day School and Sacred Heart of Newton at 7:30.

BOWL AHEAD . . . Byron Gilroy, Texas U., skirts end for TD against Texas A. and M. He scored from 11 on handoff from Layne.

Layne Pilots Texas to Bowl

COLLEGE STATION, Tex., Nov. 28 (AP)—The Texas Longhorns rolled on toward the Sugar Bowl today while Texas A. and M. picked up the pieces from one of its most disastrous seasons, made doubly bitter by a crushing 32-13 defeat administered by the rival state school.

Bobby Layne sang a lusty swan song in Southwest Conference football as he piloted Texas to its eighth straight triumph over A. and M. in the 54th renewal of this ancient series. It was the fourth time for blond Bobby to be the guiding genius for a Texas victory at the expense of the once-mighty Aggies.

Quarterbacking the Longhorns flawlessly and doing more than his usual share of ball-carrying, Layne set up one touchdown with two passes and a run, pitched 21 yards to Dale Schwartzkopf for another, sparked a third drive with his throwing and scored the final touchdown himself after setting it up with a 11-yard dash on a faked pass.

Leahy Picks Army, SMU BC, 'Bama

By FRANK LEAHY
Head Coach, Notre Dame University

Although many colleges have closed football shop for the year, tomorrow's schedule offers one of the most interesting programs of the season. The Army-Navy clash in Philadelphia, which will be played before more than 100,000 fans, tops the list.

Atlanta will be host to one of the South's most traditional games—the annual battle between Georgia and Georgia Tech. In the Southwest, Southern Methodist will endeavor to complete a perfect season against Texas Christian. Now for a look around.

ARMY-NAVY. This contest should be decided by one point. This year the teams are fairly evenly matched—and even if they were not, anything can happen in this game.

Keep your eyes on Rip Rowan of Army and Dick Scott of Navy. They may decide the outcome, Rowan with his elusive running and Scott backing up the line. We like Army to win.

GEORGIA-GEORGIA TECH. The Engineers have a very fine line, but Georgia is about due to write off earlier season losses. We pick Georgia.

SOUTHERN METHODIST-TEXAS CHRISTIAN.—The Mustangs have won nine straight. They are certified for the Cotton Bowl. Texas Christian is sure to put up a game fight, but we believe Southern Methodist will complete its season undefeated and undefeated.

BOSTON COLLEGE-HOLY CROSS: This is another traditional game in which anything can happen. John DaGrosa has resigned as Crusader coach. It would be nice if he won the last one, but we doubt that he will.

NORTH CAROLINA-VIRGINIA.—Last week we picked North Carolina State to beat Virginia and they came through. This week North Carolina University should repeat the victory.

NEBRASKA-OREGON STATE.—This should be another close one with Nebraska emerging victorious.

ALABAMA-MIAMI: The Sugar Bowl-bound Alabamians have too much for the Sunshine State boys in this Friday special.

MICHIGAN STATE-HAWAII: According to my schedule Michigan State is traveling a long way for this engagement. We think they will find the journey a victorious one.

WEST VIRGINIA-PITTSBURGH: The Mountaineers have too much power for game Pitt.

MARYLAND-NORTH CAROLINA STATE: Maryland likewise is a powerful eleven. Powerful enough, we believe, to beat the conquerors of Virginia.

Other selections: Florida over Kansas State, Fordham over N. Y. U., Kansas over Arizona, Rice over Baylor, and Tennessee over Vanderbilt.

Our lads at Notre Dame have lots of work ahead in preparing for their clash with Southern California on Dec. 6 in Los Angeles. In our next article we'll give personal observations of the Trojans gathered while watching them defeat UCLA.

Coast for a possible football game for its squad as a reward for a grand season that was climaxed with a 32-19 triumph over neighboring English on the holiday.

Classical, beaten only once this season, completed its season as runner-up for the Class A title, captured by Medford.

Classical officials, as their team rolled to success, openly admitted a week ago that they would consider no bids for a post-season game unless it included their two colored stars, Tom Smith, tackle, and Paul Pittman, back.

"As regular members of the team, they go or we don't go," declared one of the Lynn authorities.

The Lynn club, off its showing in the Orange Bowl last Christmas night against Granby High of Norfolk, Va., was high on the list of eligibles until the information about the Negro boys, coming "second handed and a bit prematurely," found the Florida committee under Orange Bowl Director Robert B. Mulloy, eliminating the possibility.

There was still a slight possibility that Classical would move to Jacksonville, Fla., for a game Dec. 12. Coach Bill Joyce was to confer with authorities in charge there, relaying the information about the colored boys. He held a ray of hope that they might still issue the invitation.

Joyce had been invited to confer about this game earlier this season but he felt that he would wait for the Thanksgiving Day result before notifying them either way.

Informed that the Orange Bowl group had turned thumbs down, a Classical official today stated "It looks as though we will have to line up something out west; maybe on the West Coast."
